"Tea for Two

By NELLIE HURLEY MINIFIE

"WHAT is the foremost qualification of a successful librarian?" I asked this week of Miss Adeline Cooke, who is in charge of Birmingham's Baldwin Public Library. "Is it having read all the latest books?" Her answer was a negative one. "No living human being"—and she smiled—"could ever hope to read that much. I should say," she spoke thoughtfully, "that the first pre-requisite of any librarian—should be a liking for people." Leader proportion of Birmingham's numerion of the ple."
