Birmingham Women's Club Legion Auxiliary Has Lovely Christmas Tea Yule Party to Be On December 17

The auditorium of the Community House was taken over Tuesday afternoon for the Christmas program and tea of lovely appointments which the Birmingham Women's club held in connection with its December meeting.

In presidents or representatives of over 50 clubs in the Detroit federation were guests of the club at this Presidents Day program.

Lovely cellophane angels were used as the centerpiece of the tea table that reflected both the spirit of Christmas and the Presidents Day theme. Further carrying out the Yule idea was the wide red satin ribbon that was placed upon the green cloth that covered the table.

Also an important part of the centerpiece were the lovely silver stars that were just slightly tipped and raised up from the table.

The tea table was arranged by Mrs. R. D. Gage, Mrs. Lewis Jensen, Mrs. Fred S. Ross, Mrs. John Black, Mrs. Warren Pratt, Mrs. Caroline Uptegrah, Mrs. Thomas Thurgood and Mrs. E. F. Painter.

Mrs. H. H. Gardner was chairman of the hospitality committee and working with her were Mrs. B. D. Dow Elwood, Mrs. G. W. Mack, Mrs. H. T. Ellerby, Mrs. Harry Allen, Mrs. F. A. Carey, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. W. S. Toothacker, Mrs. L. B. Bishop, Mrs. Uptegrah, Mrs. Fred G. Crawford and Mrs. Bricker.

Mrs. A. L. McNaughton was in charge of invitations.

Following a short business meeting with Mrs. Forney S. Hays calling presiding, a Christmas play written and directed by Mrs. Earl C. Potter, was given entitled "The Spirit of Christmas Must Live."

The play was staged in a beautiful setting of fir trees, Mrs. William O. Merrill was in charge.
