

Janet Forbush Complete Plans For Her Wedding

Janet Forbush, whose marriage Feb. 8 to Maxwell E. Peab is to be one of the social highlights of the winter season in Bloomfield Hills, has completed arrangements for her wedding.

The ceremony, by the way, will take place at 8 o'clock in the evening in the bride-elect's home in Bloomfield Hills with the Rev. Stephen Cressy officiating.

Janet's cousin, John Muzzy, will be her honor attendant and the bridesmaids will be Edith Hamilton and Sally Davis. Douglas Cressy, of Boston, will be the best man, while the ushering is to be done by Edward Ailes and Carl E. Kane.

Sally will entertain at the first affair—a cocktail party—at the couple Sunday in her home in the Hills. Janet will be hostess at a luncheon Dec. 30 and on Dec. 28 Margaret Bentley will entertain at a luncheon and kitchen shower at her home on Chicago boulevard.

Virginia Hills will entertain for both Janet and Max at a dinner party at the Detroit Athletic Club early in February.

Dancing Party To Be At Wardell

Friday evening is the night of Evelyn Livingston Smith's annual Christmas Party which is to be held this year at the Wardell. Chapones for the occasion will be Mr. and Mrs. Henry Forster, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Spiegel, the George Howard Foxes, Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Neumann and Mr. and Mrs. John D. Maynard.

A rhumba is to be danced by Daphne Reem and Bud Lehman. Ann Hirsch will do a clown dance. Carol Smith will be dancing "In-terlude" and Nancy Neumann will do the "Little Old Lady" routine.

Hills Folk to Hear Yale Glee Club

The Yale Glee Club is just about tops when it comes to vocal music so it is not at all surprising that a number of Bloomfield Hills people are going to a concert by the Sons of Eli Monday evening at 8 o'clock at Pierce School Auditorium, Kercheval avenue, Gross Pointe.

Among those who plan to attend will be Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin H. Ward; Barbara Fitch, escorted by her fiance, Bert Shulz, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Washington Wright; Mr. and Mrs. Arden Vinkey and Palmer Watling.

The Yale Glee Club was started 93 years ago and has made a special tour the feature of every season. The organization has visited about every country in Europe and last year made a special trip to sing for the eminent composer, Jan Sibelius, at his home in Finland. Donald S. Devoir, Jr., of Detroit, is the leader this year.

This year's grand tour will be to South America through the special cooperation of the State Department.
