Present Day Club

Mrs. Roy Smith, of Humphrey street, entertained recently at a Christmas party for members of the Present Day club. "Your Christmas Spirit" was the subject of the meeting. The next meeting is to be a dinner Jan. 10 to which husbands of members have been invited. Mrs. Melvin Updegraff, of Emmons street, will be hostess.

Three new U. S. Geological Survey planimetric maps of parts of Keweenaw county have been added to the stock available at the Lansing office of the conservation department's geological survey. The maps show cover and surface features, but not contours, near Eagle River and Phoenix; near Point Isabelle; and Manitow Island with part of the mainland including Schlatter lake.

Eleven Michigan radio stations now broadcast dramatic episodes from the story of Michigan conservation each week, the state department of conservation, sponsor of the series, reported today.

Gay Assemblage Gathers for Players Yule Party

Saturday of this week wasn't just another Saturday, not for the Village Players anyway, for that was the night of their annual Christmas dinner and dance.

It was a gay crowd that assembled for the Yule party, a crowd that included among others the Dwight Allens, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Neal Averill, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Day, the Donald S. Bells, Mr. and Mrs. Lane Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Booth, the James F. Bullocks, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Burdick, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Chrillon, the George D. Clarks, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner M. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin D. Coveney, the Athel F. Denhams, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Dweley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Dye and the W. R. Ewalds.

No village Players party would be complete without Mr. and Mrs. George Howard Fox, the Arthur L. Genungs, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford B. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde L. Hagman, the Henry Harts, Mr. and Mrs. Linton Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Heimiller, the W. F. Herdricks, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Holster, the Charles C. Hoods, Dr. and Mrs. James Howell.
