

Chirstmas Season Gives Birmingham Its Quota of Engagement Parties

Dorothy Gladys Trump Is Engaged To George R. Frye, of Pittsburgh

At an "open house" Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal G. Trump in Franklin, the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Gladys, to George R. Frye, of Pittsburgh, Pa., was announced.

Mr. Frye, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex G. Frye, of Floyd street, is a graduate of Purdue University and a member of Sigma Chi fraternity.

Dorothy attends the University of Michigan, where she is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Luncheon Tuesday At Gray Muzzy's Fetes Miss Forbush

A large and lovely luncheon Tuesday afternoon to be given by Mrs. H. Gray Muzzy and her daughter, Jean, is to honor Janet Forbush, whose marriage to Maxwell E. Peck, of Detroit, is to be an event of early February.

The guest list for this party includes the names of Mrs. J. H. Muzzy, Mrs. Edith M. Forbush, Janet's mother, Mrs. Morris J. Muzzy, of Phoenix, Ariz., Mrs. Robert W. Muzzy, Mrs. Edward Ford, Sally Davis, Edith Hamilton, Percy Strong, Betty Bird, Virginia Hills, Margaret Bentley, of Detroit, Mrs. Mary Anthony Belaire, III, Catherine Wilson, Patricia Floyd, Mrs. Wesley VanCamp, of Detroit, and Mrs. William Martin.

Miss Strong and Priscilla Angstadt will be co-hostesses Jan. 10, at Miss Strong's home at Orchard Lake at what the girls are calling a "household sprinkle."

Virginia Hills is to entertain for the couple at a dinner party Jan. 11 at the Detroit Athletic Club.

Mrs. Brewster Fetes Visitors at Large Tea

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Brewster have as their guests for the holidays Mrs. Brewster's mother and sister, Mrs. Benjamin Emerson Brewster and Miss Harriet Brewster.

Honoring her guests, Mrs. Brewster entertained at a large tea and reception Friday afternoon from four to six.

Presiding at the table were Mr. Richard G. English and Mr. Thomas B. Cooley, of Detroit. Assisting Mrs. Brewster were Frances E. Saunders and Mrs. Martin D. Archangeli.

Eleanor Roosevelt Plights Her Troth

Eleanor Roosevelt, a student at the Art Academy in Cranbrook, and a niece of the First Lady, is engaged to Edward Preter Elliott, of Briery, Yorkshire, England, according to word received here.

The engagement was announced during the past week at a tea at the home of Miss Roosevelt's mother, Mrs. John Cutler, at Dedham, Mass.

Elliott is the son of Mrs. Arthur Spencer Elliott, and a graduate of Liverpool University. He and Miss Roosevelt became acquainted while both were studying at Cranbrook Academy of Art.

Miss Roosevelt made her debut in the White House two years ago at a Christmas dance given in her honor by the President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

Her father, G. Hall Roosevelt, is a brother of the First Lady. Eleanor will return to Cranbrook Jan. 5 to resume her studies at the academy.

Betty Minor Forsyth Tells Troth At Lovely Tea Given on Christmas Day

Signing guest books really isn't anything unusual, it's done almost every day. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth on Waddington road Christmas Day was, however, a bit special for the moment the book was opened the words "We're Engaged" greeted them.

All of which means that the Forsyth's daughter, Betty Minor, and Theodore Mack, of Birmingham, son of Mrs. Ira J. Mack, of Newport, La., are now betrothed.

Official announcement came at the tea which was given by Betty Minor and Mrs. Forsyth Wednesday afternoon. Presiding at a lovely table-laden with a white cloth and centered with greens and silver candelabra, were Mrs. Mack and Mrs. Forsyth.

Mr. Mack was a law degree from the University of Arkansas. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta.

A wedding date has not been set.

One-time Resident Tells Announcement

Dr. and Mrs. Wellington D. Griesemer, of Reading, Pa., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ella Catherine Griesemer, of New York City, to Thomas Martindale II, also of New York, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Martindale, of Philadelphia, formerly of Birmingham. Miss Griesemer was graduated from Hood College, Frederick, Md., and Mr. Martindale is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, where he was a member of the Alpha Chi Rho fraternity and the Mask and Wig club.

Doris Richard, Jules DeBeaubien Tell of Approaching Marriage

Doris Richard's announcement party Christmas Eve was much more than just an "open house" as the invitations intimated.

For two reasons it was different than any other "open house" which Mrs. Clement C. Richard might have at her lovely home on Hillcrest drive: (1) It served to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of the daughter of the house, Doris Katharine, to Jules DeBeaubien, son of the J. W. DeBeaubiens, of Southfield road. (2) It was held from 1 to 5 a. m. immediately following Christmas Eve service at Christ Church Cranbrook.

For her party Doris chose a gown fashioned with a pink and blue toned lace bodice and a wide net skirt. Her corsage was a single spray of orchids.

The bride-elect, who is a graduate of the first class of Cranbrook School and who is now a junior at Hillsdale College, isn't braving a word about the wedding date. It will be, however, very soon.

Doris Richard

Miss Brown to Wed Cadet

Latest girl to join the ranks of the Birmingham brides-elect is Hilda Ann Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Brown, of Cranbrook road, who is announcing her engagement to Charles Fuller Matheson, son of Mrs. Charles W. Matheson, of Detroit, and the late Mr. Matheson.

Miss Brown was graduated from Baldwin High School and Stephens College.

Mr. Matheson was graduated from the Bloomfield Hills School and will graduate in June from the United States Military Academy at West Point.

Bette Jane Harrack To Wed R. O. Man

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Harrack, of Wallace street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Bette Jane, to R. O. Man, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Underwood, of Royal Oak.

Bette Jane was graduated from Baldwin High School and is now a senior at Royal Oak High School.

DuVal-Allen Betrothal Is Told

The engagement of their daughter Gertrude, to Grover E. DuVal, is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford H. Allen, of Watkins street.

Mr. DuVal, who is a graduate of Baldwin High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd DuVal, of Fourteen Mile road. Miss Allen is also a Baldwin graduate.

No date has been set.

American Home Will Be the Topic Of Friday Meeting

Cooperating with the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the Oakland County Federation is featuring the American Home at its Friday, Jan. 2, at the Community House.

The session starts at 10 in the morning with a brief report of the legislative chairman, Mrs. Albert Peppers. Immediately following this Mrs. Harvey Tolles, of Rochester, chairman of the American Homes Department for Oakland County, will preside.

The morning program. Taking a cue from the National Organization for the Women of this County are emphasizing the importance of the American Home today. All phases of home-making will be discussed. With the discussion, centering on "Making Home a Hobby" safety, interior decoration, waste spending, psychology, and character building will all be considered.

After a luncheon which will be served at the Community House on the Holly Monday club in conjunction with the Oakridge Community club and the Present Day club, of Birmingham, will present a program. "Scenes from Grandmother's Day" is to be the contribution of the Holly Monday club. The Oakridge Community club will furnish music and the Present Day club is asking Mrs. James D. Bell, a member, to give some of her original readings. Anyone interested in hearing the readings and discussions on the program is invited to attend the meeting.

Winfields Observe 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Winfield, of Valley road, observed their 25th wedding anniversary recently with an open house to which 125 friends were invited.

Mrs. Fred Stocker and Mrs. O. D. Hill assisted during the afternoon.

Coming from out of town for the occasion were Mrs. Winfield's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Christie, of Saint Simeon.

Milo K. Winters On Eastern Trip After Rites Here

An extremely simple ceremony at high noon Saturday joined in matrimony Betty Winters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Klingensmith, of Southfield road, and Milo Kendall Winters, Jr., of Providence, R. I., son of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Kendall Winters.

Dr. Samuel S. Marquis, rector emeritus of Christ Church Cranbrook, came out of retirement to perform the ceremony in the church in the hills.

For the occasion Betty chose ivory tulle and simple lace, with a square neckline bound by a band of sheering. Long, tight fitting sleeves, a slim bodice and a large skirt distinguished the gown. Her veil that fell just to the hem of the skirt was fastened to a coronet of rose points, lace and she carried white roses.

Miss Winters came from the Valley road home to her brother's best man and ushers were Betty's brothers, Thomas B. and Charles P. Klingensmith.

Immediately following the ceremony a very small reception was held at the Klingensmith home.

For her Eastern wedding trip Mrs. Winters wore a copper colored tuxedo with a copper colored tuxedo with a copper colored tuxedo.

After Jan. 6 the couple will be at home in Providence.

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McQueen had their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall McQueen, of Indianapolis, with them for the holidays. Their son, Newell, was also home from M. I. T. with his house guest, Capt. Bill Pratt, six other sons, Charles, had a guest, Douglas Sandrock, of Toledo, arriving Sunday. Mrs. Charles McQueen is a classmate at Cranbrook School.

House guests of the Howard Platts over Christmas were Dr. Kirk Sittler, of Cleveland, and Mr. L. X. Lawrence, of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Dibble, of Birmingham, had a group of friends, cocktails at the Dibble home preceded dinner at the Fox and Hounds. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Smith, formerly of Birmingham but now of Rochester, Dr. and Mrs. Eli Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Beam.

Charlotte Dillies, home for the holidays from the University of Alabama, in Tuscaloosa, was hostess Saturday to approximately 100 guests at a tea from three to six. Assisting were Ruth Gagnon, Nancy Quinn, Barbara Blawie, Alice Lee, Barbara Holland and Marian Kirk.

Guests of Juville chalmade at the Yacht Club Thursday night were Gordon Taylor, Larry Thomas, Dave Gibbons, and her sister and brother, Shirley and Clayton chalmade.

The first of the year the Henri Goodells will move from their home on Kensington to Grayton road in Grosse Pointe.

Jan. Hoff, of Hillsdale, Pa., returned to her home yesterday after spending Saturday here with Nanny Day. Her roommate at Bradford Junior College in Bradford, Mass. Hoff was in town to attend the wedding of Kay Motherwell and Edward Wilson.

Jane Ellen Ford, home from Johnson University, will be hostess to about 60 friends at a tea from three to six, Jan. 3, at her home on Riverview avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Gilman have issued about 150 invitations for an open house to be held New Year's Day from four to six at their home on Dunstan road.

As for their usual custom, Mrs. Mrs. Henry S. Booth had about 75 or 100 for the year and Christmas comes at their home. "Therion," Tuesday evening just prior to the midnight "thrive services."

Mr. and Mrs. James Vernon, Jr. were hosts at their annual open house yesterday from four to seven.

Lee A White to Talk Before Pierce Group

Lee A. White is scheduled to speak to members of the Pierce School Parent-Teacher association who meet at the school Thursday evening, Jan. 2 at 8 p. m.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Glenn Berry, Mrs. C. D. Jones, mother, vice-president, will preside.

Following the business meeting and program, refreshments will be served by the fifth grade mothers.

TELEPHONE PARTY

Gals in the traffic department of the Michigan Bell entertained at a Christmas party recently at the office on Pierce street.

Gifts were exchanged by the 50 girls who attended the party.

Make a New Year's call for these SAVINGS

NOW, make good on your New Year's resolution to save money... come to WILSON'S for these timely needs—your favorite nationally advertised brands at the lowest prices. You'll save whenever you shop here during 1941 because every price is a low price every day of the year at WILSON'S!

- 60c Alka Seltzer
- $1.20 Sal Hepatica
- $1.00 Bayer Aspirin
- $1.25 Petrolagar
- 500 Kleenex

Amazing New THROAT LIGHT

DU PONT LUCITE TONGUE DEPRESSOR TIP

75c Listerine Throat Light (WITH BATTERIES)

75c size Listerine Antiseptic

$1.50 Both for 98c

BUY BY THE CASE

CANADA DRY

Soda Water — Ginger Ale — Tom Collins

SILVER SPRINGS

Sparkling Water, Ginger Ale, Lime Rickey

Coca Cola; Vernors; Hires; Beer;

Syphon Soda; White Rock

WILSON'S

WE DELIVER DRUG PHONE 2500

RIGHT from the Beginning

A prescription compounded by us rests upon the solid foundation of quality ingredients—products of reputable manufacturers nationally known for the dependability of their preparations. It is RIGHT from the beginning—and it is RIGHT all the way through because we weigh, measure and mix the ingredients with the painstaking care that guarantees accuracy.

Ask For Your Dr. Miles Weather Chart Calendar IT'S FREE

Store Hours 8 a. m. to 11 p. m. New Year's —DAY—

Social Briefs

The Clarence G. Heimillers, of Linden road, were hosts at dinner and bridge Saturday evening. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stratton, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Herdich, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Middleton and Mr. and Mrs. Lane Bishop.

The Robert J. Vintons entertained a group of their friends Saturday evening in their newly finished recreation room at the home on Linden road. A buffet supper was served at 12 o'clock and the guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. Reed Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sandberg, Mr. and Mrs. John Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Philip M. Deaubien, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dean, Ann Smith, Perry Vaughan and Mr. and Mrs. James Talman of Westwood, Calif.

Mrs. L. P. Mercer, of Port Huron, spent Christmas with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pittman, Jr., of Linden road. She left Thursday but she is expected to return for New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham John Graham left Friday for the winter home in Naples, Fla.

Calendar OF COMING EVENTS

DECEMBER	JANUARY
1	1
2	2
3	3
4	4
5	5
6	6
7	7
8	8
9	9
10	10
11	11
12	12
13	13
14	14
15	15
16	16
17	17
18	18
19	19
20	20
21	21
22	22
23	23
24	24
25	25
26	26
27	27
28	28
29	29
30	30
31	31

- Monday, Dec. 30 Rotary club, noon, CH. VMC camp reunion dinner, 7 p. m., CH.
- Tuesday, Dec. 31 Junior Salvation Army tea, CH. Exchange club, installation of new officers, CH, noon. New Year's Eve parties, Oakland Hills and Orchard Lake country clubs.
- Wednesday, Jan. 1 NEW YEAR'S.
- Thursday, Jan. 2 Lincoln club, noon, CH.
- Saturday, Jan. 4 Horticultural society party, 8 p. m., CH. Saturday night dance, CH, 9 p. m.
- Monday, Jan. 6 Rotary club, noon, CH. Adams P-T-A meeting, 8 p. m., school.
- Tuesday, Jan. 7 Exchange club, noon, CH. Woman's club, Baldwin library.
- Wednesday, Jan. 8 DeMolay dinner, 7 p. m., CH. A. A. U. W. meeting, 2 p. m., school.
- Metropolitan Auxiliary club, CH, 8 p. m.
- Party to benefit Detroit Symphony, Gordon Mendelssohn home, East Long Lake road.
- Thursday, Jan. 9 Musicals meeting, 2 p. m., CH. Family dinner, CH, 6 p. m.

Detroit Psychologist To Talk at Adams

Dr. Marie L. Rasey, teacher of education at Wayne University, noted poet and psychologist and author of "Yet Speaking," which has just gone to press, will be a member of the Adams Parent-Teacher association at a meeting to be held at the school Jan. 6.

Her topic is to be "The Business of Growing Up." Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

A board of directors meeting at 7 o'clock to precede the regular P-T-A meeting.

Colors were away from pastels to that of hot shades—red, orange, being influenced by the thoughts of Southern winter resorts. Jungle yellow is a new shade which bids fair to become a favorite.

ONE CENT

an evening for a well-lighted kitchen

A 150-watt lamp provides good general lighting in your kitchen for three hours at a cost of only one cent. MEASURE the lighting in your home. Call any Detroit Edison office. No charge for this service.

Learn SPANISH THROUGH THE MOST INTERESTING METHOD SPANISH PROFESSOR Telephone: B'ham 9052

Thank You . . . for the past year of good will and friendship . . .

Here you will continue to find a Real Welcome, Good Service and Good Values during 1941.

INDIAN CRAFT & GIFT SHOP

"Attractive Gifts at Moderate Prices"

116 SO. WOODWARD AVE. PHONE 3179

$3.95 to $7.95

Whether you career or relax under a Nassau Palm, your good taste need not be limited by your budget. Georgiana sent to that with new dresses like this Rhythm Pin washable Pebbleluff rayon. In Havana coral, navy, Burnside amber or teal blue. Sizes 12 to 40.

Mulholland's