

Statler the Scene Of Club Party Saturday, Dec. 14

It is nearly time for another winter club party and this one Dec. 14 will have the Statler Hotel in Detroit as the setting.

Although there will be no parties out here preceding the dance a number are going to parties in Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Cassius L. Miller will entertain at a dinner at the Detroit Athletic Club.

Invited to the Millers party are Mr. and Mrs. Genaro Flores, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Chamberlin, Mr. and Mrs. Richard K. Scales, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mideley, III, the junior, J. S. O'Gorman, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Hammonds, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Underhill, Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Minsel, John R. Earle and Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Archangel.

A number from Birmingham are going in to the J. Thomas Smiths in Grosse Pointe for dinner. In the group are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Rippey, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey B. Greene, the Robert M. Scales, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence C. Howe and Ernest H. H. Graf, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Greene, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney W. Huff and the John Morses, all of Detroit, will be in the party.

Those from Birmingham who are planning to attend a subscription dinner at the Statler that evening are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Rickenbaugh, the John P. St. Clair, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson C. Ranney and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Shepard.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tucker and the Benjamin Brewsters will be co-hosts at a dinner at the Statler's home. In this group will be Mr. and Mrs. John D. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nevin and the Charles Renfrews.

Champagne Supper Honors Ballet Stars

A steady stream of cars pulled up before the brilliantly lighted home of Gordon Mudgett, "Quatermore" on East Long Lake road in Bloomfield Hills, last Thursday evening when a magnificent champagne supper was given for the stars of the Ballet Russe.

Centerpiece for the table was a huge swan of ice, lighted from within in soft pink, and holding caviar.

The party especially honored Mr. Mendeleev's house guests, Alexandra Danilova, M. and Mme. Igor Youskevitch, George Kokitch, Sonia Wolkoskova and Mme. Wolkoskova.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Shannon are expected back about the middle of the month from a short sojourn in Florida.

Community House Is Scene Today Of Girl Scout Tea

Annual tea which members of Girl Scout troop five have each year to entertain their mothers is to be held this afternoon at the Community House from 4 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Ralph A. Main and Mrs. J. Stuart Cobb are in charge of tea arrangements. A charming snow scene with a tiny Santa Claus riding over the hill, will be placed on a mirror as a centerpiece for one tea table. The setting for the second table will be a snow ball tied with a large red ribbon. Red and white candles will further "carry out" the Christmas motif.

Members of the Scout Council who have been invited to attend are Mrs. William C. Allen, Mrs. E. F. Brumham, Mrs. Glen Coley, Mrs. F. W. DuBois, Mrs. Robert Hulbert, Mrs. Eric F. Hyde, Mrs. J. Leonard Juhl, Mrs. A. J. Levin, Mrs. Frank Macaskill, Mrs. Ralph A. Main, Mrs. Arthur Fletcher Thelst, Mrs. Craig H. Ricker, Mrs. Edwin S. Snyder, Mrs. Lee A. White, Mrs. A. W. White, Mrs. J. E. McCormick and Mrs. E. F. Stephens.

Those from Birmingham who are planning to attend a subscription dinner at the Statler that evening are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Rickenbaugh, the John P. St. Clair, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson C. Ranney and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Shepard.

The New Flower Styles Spell Glamour at Holiday Parties

WHEN the man in your life sends flowers for that special holiday party, it should be a challenge to any lady to make the most of her glamour.

This season the florists have thought up a record number of flattering new ways to use fresh flowers for that extra plus of glamour that every lady yearns for on special occasions. It's worth while dropping a hint to your out-of-town beau, too, because all of the latest styles in fresh flowers can be wired anywhere. Pampouls, of course, are a perfect setting for every type of corsage. Orchids, gardenias, carnations, roses, carnations and chrysanthemums can all be counted on to give drama to any lady's up-street curls.

The only specific rule is to wear flowers where they will be most flattering to your ensemble. If you are wearing one of the new low cut evening gowns, you might take your cue from Victorian belles and use fresh flowers to dramatize the off-the-shoulder neckline. Flowers on your muff or your evening purse are an easy and fashionable solution if you are in doubt about just where to wear your flowers. Fresh flower necklaces and bracelets are favorite "bou catchers" of Gay Nineties days that are in vogue this season.
