

One of the certain ends of predatory activities in private business or in government is the immovable destination of the proceeds to their destiny is the destiny of a house built upon sand... and when the sand is gone the house and also the people who lived therein.

SIXTY-SECOND YEAR—NO. 44

THIS and THAT

By G. R. A.

MICHIGAN FOURTH ESTATE GROUP VS. BOSS RULE

Believing that the readers of this column know the history of the crusade by the recently formed Michigan Fourth Estate to improve Michigan's State government...

Here is the statement, which incidentally, was issued several hours prior to the Governor's own remarks; this statement referred to the activities of Frank D. McKay in seeking funds to liquidate debts owned by the Republican State Central Committee...

Supt. Crull Gets A New Contract

Howard D. Crull, superintendent of the State Board of Education, was given a one-year renewal of his contract by the Board of Education at its meeting Tuesday night.

The Board majority felt that as a whole definite progress has been made in the past year...

Our understanding of the State Central Committee of any political party that it exists, under State laws, is obtained in that manner...

Averill Next Speaker On WJR Radio Series

This week's occupant of radio station WJR's "The Editor's Chair" will be George R. Averill, publisher of The Eccentric.

Presbyterian Men's Club Father-Son Banquet Feb. 9

The annual Father and Son Banquet of the Presbyterian Church is dated for Friday, Feb. 9, according to the program of the club.

Club Asks About Famed Bomb Sight But Selfridge Officer Keeps Silent

Questions which many people have held in regard to military aviation in the three times he was held by Lieut. Thomas B. Summers, Intelligence Officer for the Third Air Base at Selfridge Field...

Those who would like to entertain a party for the evening can be contacted by telephone...

Women to Ask City Acquire Quarton Lake

Say Owners Willing To Donate Area For Park Purpose

A movement is under way to ask the City Commission to acquire Quarton Lake as public property. It was learned this week...

Harmon Sewerage Project Given OK

Verbal opposition by taxpayers to the Harmon-Vinewood-Lakeview sewerage project was given the go-ahead by the City Commission Tuesday night.

U-M Scholarship Call Announced

Applications are now being received for undergraduate scholarships to the University of Michigan. Both boys and girls are eligible for the competition.

Centric Wins Two State Contest Awards

Two awards went to The Eccentric in the annual contests sponsored by the Michigan Press Association.

Roller Rink Planned; City Seeks $50 Fee

A rush amendment to City ordinance to cover a proposed roller skating rink was introduced by Councilman C. Callahan...

Have You Met?

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber A. Sears and their two and a half year old daughter, Penelope Ann...

Maples Trim Parkers 47-41 in Thriller for 9th Straight Win

In the best all-around game of the season, Birmingham High School long shots kept them ahead in a thrilling game played here last night...

Turn Now to The Eccentric Classified Columns

To run a Want Ad or Place 11 For Advertiser. SEVERAL P. M. WED.

Will Continue Ice Carnival Another Year

2,000 Spectators See Thrilling Races and Exhibitions at Lake

Birmingham's winter sports carnival will be repeated next year. It was revealed this week by Robert D. Lynd, YMCA secretary...

Queen Is Crowned

Adding much to the spectator interest was the activity of Queen Faye Anderson, pretty blonde Baldwin...

100-Pound Topaz, Believed Largest Fine Crystal, Acquired by Cranbrook

A clear Brazilian topaz believed to be the largest fine crystal in the world has recently been acquired by the Cranbrook Institute of Science, Bloomfield Hills.

Occupational Nite Program Planned

On the theory that the person engaged in a profession is best suited to offer advice concerning an occupational night program...

New Shoe Store Will Be Opened

A new shoe store for Birmingham was announced by Mrs. George Chapman, of Baldwin High School...

Annual CH Meeting To Be Monday Eve

Annual meeting of the Birmingham Community House Association will be held Monday evening, Feb. 9.

Picture of a Man

... who wouldn't like to own one of the fine used cars offered for sale by dealers in this week's Eccentric. Seeing is believing!

Have You Met?

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber A. Sears and their two and a half year old daughter, Penelope Ann, who moved into their new home at 1928 Argyle drive about December 1.

He Seeks Complaints!

"What color is the water coming from the faucets in your home?" is the question put to all householders in the City by Manager Donald C. Egbert...

Iron Is Dissolved

The rust does not come from the pipes but from the iron dissolved in the water as it is pumped directly from the four wells-untouched, untreated, unfiltered-

Softening Expensive

"How much would it cost to install a plant to soften the water?" Egbert was asked...

Queen Is Crowned

Adding much to the spectator interest was the activity of Queen Faye Anderson, pretty blonde Baldwin...

100-Pound Topaz, Believed Largest Fine Crystal, Acquired by Cranbrook

A clear Brazilian topaz believed to be the largest fine crystal in the world has recently been acquired by the Cranbrook Institute of Science, Bloomfield Hills.

Occupational Nite Program Planned

On the theory that the person engaged in a profession is best suited to offer advice concerning an occupational night program...

New Shoe Store Will Be Opened

A new shoe store for Birmingham was announced by Mrs. George Chapman, of Baldwin High School...

Annual CH Meeting To Be Monday Eve

Annual meeting of the Birmingham Community House Association will be held Monday evening, Feb. 9.

Picture of a Man

... who wouldn't like to own one of the fine used cars offered for sale by dealers in this week's Eccentric. Seeing is believing!

Will Continue Ice Carnival Another Year

2,000 Spectators See Thrilling Races and Exhibitions at Lake

Birmingham's winter sports carnival will be repeated next year. It was revealed this week by Robert D. Lynd, YMCA secretary...

Queen Is Crowned

Adding much to the spectator interest was the activity of Queen Faye Anderson, pretty blonde Baldwin...

100-Pound Topaz, Believed Largest Fine Crystal, Acquired by Cranbrook

A clear Brazilian topaz believed to be the largest fine crystal in the world has recently been acquired by the Cranbrook Institute of Science, Bloomfield Hills.

Occupational Nite Program Planned

On the theory that the person engaged in a profession is best suited to offer advice concerning an occupational night program...

New Shoe Store Will Be Opened

A new shoe store for Birmingham was announced by Mrs. George Chapman, of Baldwin High School...

Annual CH Meeting To Be Monday Eve

Annual meeting of the Birmingham Community House Association will be held Monday evening, Feb. 9.

Picture of a Man

... who wouldn't like to own one of the fine used cars offered for sale by dealers in this week's Eccentric. Seeing is believing!

Have You Met?

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber A. Sears and their two and a half year old daughter, Penelope Ann, who moved into their new home at 1928 Argyle drive about December 1.

Will Continue Ice Carnival Another Year

2,000 Spectators See Thrilling Races and Exhibitions at Lake

Birmingham's winter sports carnival will be repeated next year. It was revealed this week by Robert D. Lynd, YMCA secretary...

Queen Is Crowned

Adding much to the spectator interest was the activity of Queen Faye Anderson, pretty blonde Baldwin...

100-Pound Topaz, Believed Largest Fine Crystal, Acquired by Cranbrook

A clear Brazilian topaz believed to be the largest fine crystal in the world has recently been acquired by the Cranbrook Institute of Science, Bloomfield Hills.

Occupational Nite Program Planned

On the theory that the person engaged in a profession is best suited to offer advice concerning an occupational night program...

New Shoe Store Will Be Opened

A new shoe store for Birmingham was announced by Mrs. George Chapman, of Baldwin High School...

Annual CH Meeting To Be Monday Eve

Annual meeting of the Birmingham Community House Association will be held Monday evening, Feb. 9.

Picture of a Man

... who wouldn't like to own one of the fine used cars offered for sale by dealers in this week's Eccentric. Seeing is believing!

Have You Met?

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber A. Sears and their two and a half year old daughter, Penelope Ann, who moved into their new home at 1928 Argyle drive about December 1.

Will Continue Ice Carnival Another Year

2,000 Spectators See Thrilling Races and Exhibitions at Lake

Birmingham's winter sports carnival will be repeated next year. It was revealed this week by Robert D. Lynd, YMCA secretary...

Queen Is Crowned

Adding much to the spectator interest was the activity of Queen Faye Anderson, pretty blonde Baldwin...

100-Pound Topaz, Believed Largest Fine Crystal, Acquired by Cranbrook

A clear Brazilian topaz believed to be the largest fine crystal in the world has recently been acquired by the Cranbrook Institute of Science, Bloomfield Hills.

Occupational Nite Program Planned

On the theory that the person engaged in a profession is best suited to offer advice concerning an occupational night program...

New Shoe Store Will Be Opened

A new shoe store for Birmingham was announced by Mrs. George Chapman, of Baldwin High School...

Annual CH Meeting To Be Monday Eve

Annual meeting of the Birmingham Community House Association will be held Monday evening, Feb. 9.

Picture of a Man

... who wouldn't like to own one of the fine used cars offered for sale by dealers in this week's Eccentric. Seeing is believing!

Have You Met?

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber A. Sears and their two and a half year old daughter, Penelope Ann, who moved into their new home at 1928 Argyle drive about December 1.

Urge People Double Check Tax Receipts

Officials Fear Some May Unknowingly Lose Their Property

Taxpayers should check the list of 3,750 Birmingham parcels to be sold Feb. 13 in the so-called scavenger land sale to make sure their property is not included...

Escapes Notice

"Something is a drain assessment or other small assessment," Haack continues.

Police Crack Down On Tardy Culprits

Birmingham policemen "get their man," especially speeders who neglect to come in to pay for their tickets.

City's Bond Sale To Occur Friday

Whether Birmingham can sell $254,592 in bonds at a lower rate of interest will be known Friday.

Annual CH Meeting To Be Monday Eve

Annual meeting of the Birmingham Community House Association will be held Monday evening, Feb. 9.

Picture of a Man

... who wouldn't like to own one of the fine used cars offered for sale by dealers in this week's Eccentric. Seeing is believing!

Have You Met?

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber A. Sears and their two and a half year old daughter, Penelope Ann, who moved into their new home at 1928 Argyle drive about December 1.

Maples Trim Parkers 47-41 in Thriller for 9th Straight Win

In the best all-around game of the season, Birmingham High School long shots kept them ahead in a thrilling game played here last night...

Turn Now to The Eccentric Classified Columns

To run a Want Ad or Place 11 For Advertiser. SEVERAL P. M. WED.