

Basketball Not Harmful to Young Players Declares Coach Frank Whitney

Commenting on several articles that thive appeared in Detroit in wayspers concerning the health of high school basketball players, Coach Franklyn Whitney, has stated his positive objection to any theory which declared the game harmful to the players.

"The only reason the high school coaches are favoring the idea of reinstating thes center jump in the preg game is because those a particular, coaches that gentle is the coaches that the control the whole game," Mr. Whithey declared,

Snowball Idea Used At Dance Saturday

A big "snowball" hanging from the center of the ceiling provided the keynote for the dance at the Community House last Saturday night.

Inside the big ball were hundreds of little cotton snowballs. During the course of the evening. Faye Anderson, the carnival queen, pulled a string releasing the tiny balls.

The decorations were made up of skating silhouettes and snowmen with blue lights casting wintery shadows around the room;
