Must Pay Tax Regardless of the Worker's Age

Wage earners in their sixties are going to learn, sometime during the present year, that their employers are manifesting less interest in their age, according to Richard H. Hendrick, manager of the Social Security Board's field office at Pontiac. He explained that this is a result of the recent revision of the Social Security Act making old-age and survivors insurance taxes payable regardless of the age of the employee.

"Before the act was amended," Hendrick said, "an employer was required to turn in the taxes in connection with this system only until the employee was 65 years old. This tax, based on the worker's wages is 1 per cent each for employer and employee. After 65, the age at which the worker might qualify for old-age insurance payments, his wages were not subject to the tax. The age barrier is now removed."

Horse Hits Car; Hurts Driver

PORTLAND (MPA)—Three runaway horses came pounding down a highway near here and one struck the front of a car driven by a Lansing man. The horse was only slightly injured, but the driver received serious cuts about the face when the horse crashed through the windshield.

Famed Soprano

Last of the list of world-celebrated artists to appear this season with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will be LOTTE LEHMANN, soprano, star of the Metropolitan Opera. Mme. Lehmann will be presented in an all-Wagner program Thursday night, Feb. 29, in Masonic Auditorium. Franco Ghione will conduct this concert.

With the orchestra Mme. Lehmann will sing three numbers: "Dich, teure Halle," from "Tannhauser"; Elsa's Dream, from "Lohengrin"; and the immortal Prelude and Love-Death, from "Tristan and Isolde." She will appear before and after intermission.

The orchestra will play the following excerpts from the music-dramas of the great German composer: Prelude to Act III, "Lohengrin"; Good Friday Music, "Parsifal"; Prelude to "Die Meistersinger von Nurnburg"; "Entrance of the Gods into Walhalla," "Das Rheingold"; "Ride of the Valkyrie," "Die Walkure" and Siegfried's Rhine Journey, "Dusk of the Gods" (Gotterdammerung).

Corson Asks Penalty On Tardy Payment Of Personal Taxes

If a new policy requested by City Treasurer Harold H. Corson is adopted by the City Commission, delinquent personal property taxes will bear the same interest penalties as those on real property.

In the past, Corson explained Monday night, about 90 per cent of personal taxes have been collected with no difficulty; while the other ten per cent delinquencies bore no interest.

The penalties for delinquency on all taxes, if the change in policy is adopted, will be as follows, starting next September: During September, ¾ of 1 per cent, and for each succeeding month until March, an added ¾ of 1 per cent. (The total in February would be 4½ per cent.) For every month afterward, the increase would be ½ of 1 per cent.

There is no top limit on the interest as the rate mounts month after month.

Fellowship Supper Set For Wednesday

Monthly fellowship supper at the First Baptist Church will be held Wednesday evening at 6:45 in the church dining room.

The speaker of the evening will be Rev. William F. Bostick, pastor of the Redford Baptist Church of Detroit.

A special feature of the evening will be showing motion pictures recently taken in the local church. The complete program of activity has been filmed and will be shown that evening. Part of the film is in technicolor. Special music will be provided for the occasion.

"Mind" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday.

The Golden Text (Psalms 147:5) is: "Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (James 2:12): "So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 225): "The history of our country, like all history, illustrates the might of Mind, and shows human power to be proportionate to its embodiment of right thinking."

May 25 Deadline for Naturalization of Alien Veterans

May 25, 1940, is the final date by which World War veterans who are not American citizens may become naturalized by the court petition method. It is extremely unlikely that a further extension of time will be permitted in this matter, according to an article in the January issue of Foreign Service, official monthly publication of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States.

The court petition method is comparatively easy and much less complicated than the usual naturalization procedure, the article states.

All alien veterans interested in becoming citizens by the simplest possible means should correspond directly with the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Department of Labor, Washington, D. C., to make arrangements for meeting with one of its representatives and to secure the necessary forms and detailed information as to the required evidence and procedure.

RELIGIOUS AIR PROGRAM

"Heralds of Destiny," adventure stories of civilization building and humanitarianism taken from the annals, past and present, of the Baptist and Methodist churches, are being presented weekly over Radio Station WCAR in Pontiac. The programs are heard at 3:45 o'clock on Friday afternoons.

An eyewitness account of the recent bombing of Chungking, the sacrifice an old slave made in order to teach his people, the heroic courage of America's first foreign missionary, and the inspired determination that carried a Revolutionary era preacher on a quarter of a million mile journey on horseback provide the material for a few of the stories.

Police Get Fooled

TRENTON (MPA)—Probably the most surprised persons in a local bank when a squad of police men rushed into it recently were the bank employees. The police men were surprised, too, when they found there wasn't any holdup. Someone had accidentally hit a burglar alarm button without realizing it, bringing out all police on duty.
