135 Running Miles Of Nets Confiscated In Last 10 Years

FRANKFORT — Patrolling Great Lakes' fishing grounds in fair weather and foul during the last decade, officers of the conservation department detailed to enforcement of commercial fishing regulations have confiscated approximately 135 running miles of gill nets.

"Patrol No. 1," the department's patrol boat used in enforcement work on the Great Lakes, has made port during the decade with 100 confiscated deep trap nets, six small trawls, four nets and eight pound nets. Four hundred and fifty boxes of gill nets were seized.

Replacement value of confiscated gill nets is about $20,000, that of trap nets $25,000.
