Miss Klingsmith To Wed Chicagoan

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Ann Klingsmith to Milo Kendall Winter, of Chicago, was made Sunday afternoon by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Klingsmith, at an informal tea for a small group of intimate friends given at the Klingsmith home on Orchard Ridge road.

Mr. Winter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Kendall Winter of Chicago, and he is now teaching at the Rhode Island School of Design at Providence, R. I. He formerly attended Cranbrook and is a graduate of the Chicago Art Institute. He spent the holidays here with his fiancée's family.

The bride-elect is a member of the Junior League and Sigma Gamma. She was a member of the first class at Kingswood school and also attended the Bennett school in Millbrook, N. Y. She made her debut on December 15, 1935, at a reception given by her parents at their home.

Psi Chapter of Beta Sigma Sorority To Install Officers Friday Evening

Installation officers for the newly elected officers of Psi chapter of Beta Sigma sorority will be held Friday evening at the home of the retiring president, Mrs. James Brodie, Mary Day's avenue, Pontiac. Letitia McCulloch, also of Pontiac, will take over as president of the chapter. Margaret Ladd of Birmingham will become vice president and will succeed Mrs. Preston Green of Pontiac. Mrs. Milton Thomson of Birmingham will take the office of treasurer for the second consecutive year, and Dorothy Clark of Pontiac and Mrs. E. F. Andersen of Birmingham will take the place of Elsa Scimmler of Pontiac as corresponding secretary and recording secretary, respectively.

Psi chapter received its charter in November, 1938. In the ensuing year the chapter doubled its membership. The local chapter was established by Mrs. Brodie, who was then Marie Morris. Mrs. Brodie belonged to Chi Eta chapter in Auburn, Ind., before she moved to Pontiac and conceived the idea of organizing a group in this locality. Psi chapter has the

First Birthday

Little wonder that Sandra Alice Eggleston feels pleased with herself for Wednesday marked her first birthday anniversary. Sandra, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Eggleston, formerly of Birmingham, observed the anniversary at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Staples of Yosemite boulevard.

Because this group was going through the organization stage, the meetings include Edith Schuller of Birmingham, Beverly Fay, Genevieve Walsh and Jane Sebastian of Pontiac, and Mrs. George McCann of Birmingham.

Miss Harriett Flannery Announces Engagement

At a cocktail party Sunday afternoon given to compliment Betty Day whose marriage to Julian Braun was celebrated Friday morning, Harriett Rogers Flannery announced her engagement to Charles Ernest Reutter, Jr., son of Mrs. C. E. Reutter, Jr. of Rye, N. Y., and Warren, Conn. Miss Flannery is the daughter of Mrs. Walter R. Flannery of Bloomfield Hills.

No date has been set for the wedding.
