Finds New Uses For Soy Beans

The lowly soy bean rises to a new social position as Jay N. Judd, Asheville, N. C., farmer, finds it to be a health food of many uses. Above, Judd mixes the beans in his special processing device that turns them into one of many products, including malt, flour, coffee and several health potions.

CARGO SHIPS
 Great Britain, it is said, is attempting to buy cargo vessels in the United States. The British war ships already completed, even old ones, averaging about 7,500 tons each. The number of ships to be purchased will depend upon the continuance of the war.

POTENTIAL MENACE
 In a recent speech, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt warned that four million young people, out of work and out of school, are a potential menace to their communities unless something is done about finding jobs for them. She suggests a thorough study of the educational systems of the nation.

Nearly 150,000 World War veterans have not applied for bonuses totaling about $70,000,000. As of Oct. 31, the Veterans' Administration had certified 3,477,551 claims aggregating $1,913,563,000.

They'll CHEER it's QUALITY with "Mm's" and "Ah's"

Why? Because quality makes a big difference in flavor. And, your family's "Mm's" and "Ah's" and requests for second helpings are conclusive proof of the flavorful quality of the meats you buy here. Our rigid standards of selection permit no compromise with quality. We offer the meats of reliable packers, nationally famous for the excellence of their products, at prices that mean savings for you.

Sophie Tucker Pens Life Story

More than 30 years as a "red-hot mamma" is something to write about, and Sophie Tucker is doing just that. She pens her autobiography in bed in the early morning hours after her stage performance.
