

The Birmingham Eccentric

T and THAT By G. R. A.

Main Street Defender If I were Wendell L. Wilkie, Republican candidate for President...

Empty Honor The weak and synthetic power of being a political skyrocket is shown in the case of Thomas E. Dewey...

Where To Stop Wars A few days ago I sat in the presence of a Detroit high school teacher who has taught no fewer than 10,000 youngsters...

Many School Facts Revealed in Report For the benefit of people in the Birmingham school district whose $16,712,855 worth of property is taxed for operation of the schools...

Fun With The Kids Have you ever made a canoe trip down a river? It's great fun especially if you bring your child along to enjoy the fun...

City Is Defendant In Auto Crash Suit The Commercial Assurance Co. by its attorney, John P. Mackay, filed suit against the city of Birmingham...

Fun With The Kids (continued) You've got to be a good swimmer to enjoy the fun. Last Saturday I took Susan, 16, John 18, and a young Alabamian...

Payoff Checks Now on Route From Capital

Dividend checks for a $145,000 payoff to depositors in the closed First National Bank of Birmingham should arrive in the receiver's office today from Washington...

Who Are Better Paid; Policemen Or the Teachers?

Who are better paid, teachers or policemen? That question, long discussed by Birmingham people, was raised again at the annual meeting of the school district last Monday...

1st National Melon To Be Cut Promptly By Pontiac Official

Dividend checks for a $145,000 payoff to depositors in the closed First National Bank of Birmingham should arrive in the receiver's office today from Washington...

Tea for Two Visits with Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Women

All my life I've wondered what a kind of a home an architect would design for himself. This week I saw that house. Like Rome, it wasn't built in a day...

As Sarazen's Challengers Failed 7 to 5

The shadows were lengthening across Oakland Hills yesterday afternoon when Gene Sarazen, the bronzed, very little golfer from Connecticut admitted defeat for his Ryder Cup challengers...

Golf Tournament To Aid Red Cross Ends Successfully

As we strode along, looking for the Vic Ghezzi-Harry Cover match coming on fate home stretch, Sarazen confessed with disappointment that his challenge of Walter Hagen's Ryder Cuppers was doomed to defeat...

18 Scouts Home After Canoe Trip

Eighteen modern Dutch Boones, Scouts and Scouters of Boy Scout Troop B-1, returned last Sunday from a two-week vacation...

Dog Hits Accelerator; Car Rams Another Which Crashes Tree

Two weeks ago, a fallen cigar caused an automobile driver to crash last Friday, another unusual mishap occurred when a dog fell against the accelerator of a car...

Youth Establishes Bureau To Get Dates For Young Birmingham; Business Good

Are you having any fun? Do you pine for companionship of the other sex? Do you wish that you had the nerve to ask someone for a date...

T. W. Taliaferro Services Held

Funeral services for Thomas Warren Taliaferro, prominent Hills resident and one of Bloomfield's first four commissioners, were held Monday morning at 11 o'clock at his home...

Three New Stores On West Maple

Three new store buildings fronting West Maple were started this week by Scott Hersey, builder for Mack Hupp, the owner. The stores, which have been planned by the Methodist parsonage and extend west at numbers 243, 245 and 247...

New Plant Chief Here For Bell Telephone

Norman Moeller, plant chief for the Michigan Bell Telephone Co., has been transferred from Midland, it was learned Wednesday. William Begg, of Pontiac, will take his place. The changes are a promotion for both men.

Funeral Services Held

Funeral services for Thomas Warren Taliaferro, prominent Hills resident and one of Bloomfield's first four commissioners, were held Monday morning at 11 o'clock at his home...

Still In Jail

Ben Craft, 41, arrested here last week on a morals charge, remains in Oakland County Jail at Pontiac awaiting arraignment in Circuit Court.

City Employees Picnic

City employees and their families, about 60 in number, will hold their annual picnic Friday afternoon and evening at Elizabeth Lake. The Municipal Building will not be closed for a skeleton force will remain on the job.

City's Salary Schedule

Editor's note—Presented herewith is the salary schedule for the City of Birmingham, printed by The Eccentric as a matter of public record about which the taxpayers are entitled to know.

City of Birmingham Payroll

Table with columns: Classification, Monthly Rate, Rate per hr. Includes positions like City Manager, Treasurer, Police Chief, etc.

However, City Can't Make It Retroactive

Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland today upheld Birmingham's billboard ordinance except for two provisions, in an opinion filed this morning with the County Clerk.

Dog Immunization To Be Compulsory Starting Next Year

Starting in 1941, all Birmingham dogs must be immunized against rabies before a license will be issued. The City Commission decided Monday night when a new dog ordinance was adopted.

Red Cross Cash Still Coming In

Quotas mean nothing to generous Birmingham people. Given a goal of $2,800 in the recent Red Cross drive to aid the refugees of Europe, Birmingham soon passed that and now reports $4,108 collected...

Angus McLay Named Head of Association

Angus D. McLay, 715 W. 11th Street, was elected president of the Michigan Electric Light Association at a meeting of that group in Bloomfield Hills...

Funeral Services Held

Funeral services for Thomas Warren Taliaferro, prominent Hills resident and one of Bloomfield's first four commissioners, were held Monday morning at 11 o'clock at his home...

Still In Jail

Ben Craft, 41, arrested here last week on a morals charge, remains in Oakland County Jail at Pontiac awaiting arraignment in Circuit Court.

City's Salary Schedule

Table with columns: Classification, Monthly Rate, Rate per hr. Includes positions like City Manager, Treasurer, Police Chief, etc.