Sailing Breeze Nearly Disasterous To Senior Sailors at Orchard Lake

A light but fair sailing breeze showed both challenges and challenges around the course at Orchard Lake Country Club Sunday morning and results would have been disasterous to the Senior Sailors if the wind had not played a dirty trick on Dick an Dusen, shoved him the wrong way at the wrong moment, made him foul Spence Hopkins' boat, and so go to the foot of the class. Score: Seniors 57, Juniors 47, Paul Penfield won by a quarter of a country mile and Gordon Saunders club, some fine windward work to lead the Juniors with his second place.

On both Saturday and Sunday afternoons fresh but hot winds prevailed and skippers and crews got royally burned. On Saturday Jack Strong led the first race, with Herb Gardner and Clem Pace chasing him. And the second race went to Hawley Otis, who defied all precedent by taking it away from Jack Strong. On Sunday Penfield and Gardner led the fleet in the two races, with Hopkins and Waltham P. Adams taking second.

Junior Girls Sailing six countable races, here is the official list of Who's Who in the junior girls races: Bobette Wiley, first with a standing of 1607; Edith Williams, 7 second; Cynthia Adams, third; and Barbara Underwood, fourth.

In fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth positions are Pat Dayton, Martha Mellinger, Virginia Adams and Eleanor Penfield.
