

BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

Good old Birmingham is not so modern and sophisticated, after all. No, sir—

One thing had about all this heat is that windows must be opened at night, and noisy radios and people having parties sometimes offend their neighbors.

Some city slicker got into a card game at a local gasoline station Sunday evening and took away $17 with him, police were notified.

Speaking of rackets—that fellow in Mexico is still continuing to flood the country with those sucker
