

New Claire Booth Book Purchased By Public Library

By LINDO MOORE

There ought to be some special kind of palm to award Claire Booth for her ability to laugh at the modern boys of Europe...

Her play, Margin for Error, is a thriller with overtones of political satire. The entire action takes place in the German consulate in New York...

Isolated America, by Raymond Buell. The author attempts an analysis of the relationship between American domestic problems and the international situation...

Sleep Like a Prince in a house cooled for 5c a night!

If you have ever tossed and turned in a hot, stuffy bedroom until four o'clock in the morning...

So effective is this type of cooling—lowering the temperature as much as 7 to 14 degrees in the evening...

The principle on which it operates is simple. The attic fan draws the warm air in your rooms upward to the attic...

Department stores, electrical dealers, and fan dealers will gladly give you full information about this low-cost method of house cooling...

Smith. A story of the Sussex countryside and of the damage wrought by a bored London woman who wrecked one home and might have done the same with another had not her daughter intervened.

The Vantage Point, by Hilda Morris. The story of Amy Trent, who, at 46, was forced to strike out into a new life when she lost her teaching position.

Master-At-Arms, by Rafael Sabatini. The leader of the cloak-and-sword school of writing presents a new novel in the direct line of his earlier 'Saramouche'.

Peggy Covers London, by Emma Bugbee. The irrepressible girl reporter, whose exploits in Washington and New York have made her a household name...

Lucy Ellen, by L. F. Wright. Stories of a Southern girl; her own candid accounts of happenings at home, during visits and house-parties, dances, football games...

Forced-Off Road, Car Smashes Pole

An unidentified driver was responsible for a crash last Thursday on Southfield road, near Brown, Clifford J. Potter, 20 years old, of route 3, Birmingham, told police...

Nancy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hines, is leaving soon for Camp Metamora for a two weeks' stay.

Lathrup Townsite News

by LILLIAN DIEDERICH

[During Mrs. Diederich's vacation, Coline N. Peppatt is content to read Lathrup Townsite and telephone is Southfield 3239.]

Lathrup Townsite residents seem to favor the West Coast and other points in the West for vacationing.

The Charles Hathaway family have just returned from a month's vacation trip to Los Angeles, where they visited their son, Paul Hathaway and family.

Saratoga boulevard isn't quite the same since it has lost the blue coupe darting in and out of the drive way—Mrs. J. W. Diederich and son, Bob, are now traveling to California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sutherland are entertaining Mrs. Sutherland's mother, Mrs. M. Sutherland, of Carleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jacobs and daughter, Marion, of Washington, D. C., and Mr. and Mrs. B. Hanshaw and two children, of Detroit, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Pruitt on Thursday at a steak-fry in their garden.

Garage Worker Gets $50 Fine, Suspension For Drunk Driving

Edwin Lester Grissom, of 1849 Pine street, worker in a Birmingham garage, received a $50 fine and suspension of his driver's license when arrested before Justice Forbes S. Haswell Monday.

Grissom was arrested July 17, according to a report made to police, after his car had forced two others off 14 Mile road. They were driven by James E. St. Jean, 16208 Birwood, and A. G. Purse, 274 W. Woodland, Ferndale, who turned out and chased Grissom to Birmingham golf club property, where police arrested Grissom.

Will Beautify A Vacant Alley

Beautification of Hunter boulevard may be progressing slowly, but not so the improvement of an alley from Watkins street to Stanley.

Public spirited citizens asked that the City Commission close this alley between Lincoln and Wallace on the grounds that it is never used and that it accumulates rubbish.

City Manager D. C. Eberhart recommended a hearing four weeks hence. He suggested that the alley be closed but that the City reserve an easement in the center for possible use in serving a sewer which runs under it.

What Is Man? The only laughing animal is man. William Whitehead.

The following cases were filed: Mrs. Helen M. Kenaby, Birmingham, against Anthony Kanab. Mrs. Katherine G. Fobert, Birmingham, against Donald P. Fobert.

Rev. William Duncan, Birmingham, and Arlen E. Duncan.

Driver U-Turns; Crash Is Result

A U-turn on Woodward avenue was blamed for an auto mishap Saturday afternoon on Woodward avenue at Adams. Walter Anderson, 1140 Lake Park drive, told police that he was driving north on Woodward when another machine, driven by Elmer Croston, 3595 Thomas street, Berkeley, came west of Adams, made a U-turn and struck Anderson's car. No one was hurt.

Pedestrian Hit By Motor Car

Mrs. John Henry, 350 North Woodward, received scratches when she was struck last Friday evening by a car driven by Victor I. Peck, 359 Ferndale, at the Woodward-Oakland light. It was said that Mrs. Henry did not observe the traffic light and that Peck could not avoid the impact. She was thrown to one knee.
