

Wedding Date Of June 22 Set By Rosemary Neal

Another name was added to the list of June brides-elect this week when Rosemary Neal made known her intention of exchanging vows with John Roger Brown at a ceremony to be performed in the Faith Lutheran Church at Cousins highway and Outer drive in Detroit, June 22 at 4:30 p. m.

The Rev. Theodore Waggoner, Jr., of the Birmingham Lutheran Church will officiate at the wedding and will be assisted by Rev. Carl Kemp, from the Faith Lutheran Church.

Miss Neal has asked Mrs. Thomas J. Usher, III, to be her matron of honor and best man will be Thomas F. Neal. Seating the guests will be S. Matthews and Arthur H. Otis, Jr.

Although less than 10 days remain before the wedding, several parties to complement the bride-elect are on the calendar. Wednesday Betty Lou Meyers entertained at her home at a bathroom shower to honor Miss Neal and this evening Mrs. Perry A. Vaughan and her daughter, Lillian, will be co-hostesses at a china shower at their home on Vaughan road. Mrs. Thomas Usher has reserved Friday for a luncheon to honor Rosemary at Devon Gables.

Mrs. Usher and Mrs. Thomas Neal will entertain at the spinner dinner.

Miss Deal is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Neal, of Detroit, and Mr. Brown is the son of Mrs. Grace Braflet, of Buckingham road in Birmingham, and Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

The Neals are former residents of Birmingham and have a wide circle of acquaintances in the district.

Mr. Brown received his degree from the University of Michigan, is affiliated with Chi Phi fraternity.

Leo H. Wiederhoff Weds in Ann Arbor "June Moon Jive" is Unusual Title Chosen for Dance

News of considerable interest to Birmingham concerns the wedding in Ann Arbor June 1 of Fern W. Thies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Thies, of Ann Arbor, and Leo H. Wiederhoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wiederhoff, of Ann Arbor, formerly of Birmingham.

The Rev. Henry O. Yoder read the service in the Trinity Lutheran Church at 2 o'clock June 1, the birthday of the bride's mother. For her wedding the bride wore a white lace dress with a neck lace of simulated pearls given her by the bridegroom. Her finger tip blouses and also wore long white lace mitts and carried pink roses and sweet peas.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Charles Hunt, of Wandotte, an aunt of the bride. She wore peach colored net and Mrs. Wiederhoff's sister, Ann, was bridesmaid, wore powder blue net. They had matching ribbons on white picture hats and carried talisman rods and sweet peas.

Robert Jenks, of Ann Arbor, was best man, and ushers were Earl Fisher and Walter Danner, both of Ann Arbor.

On their return from a short motor trip the couple moved to Whitmore Lake for the summer.

Street Dances To Begin Here Friday, June 21

First of the season's street dances is to be held Friday evening, June 21 at the Baldwin High School according to word received here from Mrs. Wilbur U. Johnstone who is serving this year as general chairman of the dances that will be held weekly through Aug. 9.

Mrs. William E. Esery is in charge of the party and Mrs. Andrew N. Watson is chairman of refreshments that will be served. These dances, which are going into their third year here in Birmingham, are a project of the Birmingham Parent-Teacher Council and are to be held at Barnum and Baldwin schools alternately.

Mrs. J. R. Quinn is secretary and treasurer and a committee of 10 adults is being set up for the coming season. Sea Scouts form the youth committee for these dances.

Mrs. Bernice F. Beach and Mrs. John E. Thompson are in charge of arrangements.
