Ice Blue Net Frock Chosen For Mid-Morning Wedding

For her wedding to John Welch Power, son of Mrs. John M. Power, of Helena, Mont., and the late Mr. Power, Marcella Helen Kent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Kent, of Arlington drive, chose a gown of ice blue net with eyelid embroidery on the skirt and bodice. She wore an ice blue Mary Stuart hat with lilies of the valley and a small white orchid under the brim. The bride carried a bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.
 Miss Kent and Mr. Power exchanged their nuptial vows Saturday morning at Holy Name Church at 10 o'clock with the Rev. Joseph Byrne reading the service. Della Mae Clemmer, who was Miss Kent's only attendant, wore a pale pink point d'esprit. She wore a large leghorn hat with pink velvet streamers and carried pink roses.
 Thomas Powers, of Helena, was his brother's best man, and the usher was Theodore F. MacManus, Jr., Charles Ernest Reutter, Jr., John Begley and David Cheelie, of New York.
 For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kent wore a gown of Chateau chiffon. She wore a gold straw hat veiled in brown and a shoulder corsage of orchids. Mrs. Power was in black chiffon with white accessories.
 Following the service, a wedding breakfast for 200 guests was held in the Kent home. Blue delphinium in yellow vases were used in the receiving rooms and the dining room was decorated with white flowers.
 Mr. and Mrs. Power flew to Helena, Mont., for a fortnight's visit and on their return will live on Opdyke road, Bloomfield Hills. For traveling Mrs. Power wore a suit with a navy skirt and a carnation jacket. A navy hat trimmed with carnations and navy accessories completed her costume.

Cranbrook Faculty To Scatter for Vacation Period

With the end of another school year at Cranbrook (commencement was Saturday), many of the instructors and their families are preparing to fly to the four corners of the United States for the vacation period.
 Rudolph D. Lindquist, director of Cranbrook, and Mrs. Lindquist will remain, however, until Bloomfield and Ann Arbor, where he will teach at the University of Michigan during the summer months. Several have chosen California for the summer months, among them Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd L. Waite and Phyllis Curtis. Mr. Waite will teach at Mount Shasta in the northern part of the state and Mrs. Curtis, band and orchestra director at Cranbrook, will, during the summer, conduct two orchestras at the World's Fair in San Francisco and he also will go to the University of California in Berkeley. Mr. and Mrs. Royce B. Ricketts already are in California where the former is a teacher at Berkeley.
 Mr. and Mrs. George W. Patch will leave shortly for their farm in Massachusetts and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert V. Davis will go to Vermont.
 Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Saarinen are leaving on the seventeenth for Cambridge, Mass., where Mr. Saarinen, who heads the Cranbrook Academy of Art, will be awarded an honorary doctor's degree by Harvard University at commencement on June 20. Following their stay at Harvard, the Saarins will spend two weeks on Cape Cod.
 Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Thompson will attend a camp in Maine and the B. N. Coulters will go to Vermont for the summer.
