Helen Brown Has All-White Wedding In St. James Church

White, gladolite, stock and snapdragons in gold altar vases formed an attractive background for the wedding Saturday afternoon in St. James Episcopal church of Miss Helen Virginia Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Brown, of Greenwood avenue, and John Richard McAlpine, son of Mrs. Alexander McAlpine, of Highland Park. Rev. Warner L. Forsyth performed the ceremony at 3 o'clock.

Miss Brown wore a white chiffon gown designed for her by Miss Mary Jane McCarry, a former classmate of the bride. Her dress, with a round neck and a row of little buttons down the front, was trimmed with lace and gathered into wide cuffs at the wrist and the bouffant skirt ended in a long, white train. Her bridesmaid, Miss Katherine Wygant, wore a white tulle dress with a crown of pleted net and a bouquet of gardenias completed her costume.

Miss Katherine Wygant attended Miss Brown as maid of honor and Mrs. A. J. Desmond, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid. Miss Betty Hill and Miss Joanne Hart were bridesmaids. They were all gowns. Miss Katherine Wygant wore a tiara of marguerites and carried a bouquet of the same flowers, while the bridesmaid's tiaras and bouquets were of daisies.

The bride's niece, Judy LeMessurier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman L. LeMessurier, served with flowers. Miss Betty Hill, of the Swiss pianoforte and carrying a small bouquet of daisies. Miss Mary Jane McCarry, of Mrs. A. J. Philip, Jr., was his aunt's ring-bearer.

Gordon McAlpine was his brother's best man and Clayton Mitchell, A. J. Desmond and Frederick Gibson were ushers. The bride's mother, Mrs. W. M. McAlpine, was in a blue and white print dress, with a blue hat and a corsage of yellow roses.

Following the marriage service, a reception was held in the garden house at Brown home. Mr. and Mrs. McAlpine left on a trip to New York, Philadelphia and Washington, the bride wearing a green and white traveling frock and white hat. They will live in the Park Manor, Euclid avenue east, Detroit, on their return.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Betzler and their daughter, Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Bartlett, all of Cincinnati; Mrs. Herbert Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Adams, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wood, Jr., of Lansing.
