IN MEMORIAM
 IN LOVING memory of Patricia K. Adkins, who passed away June 20th, 1939.
 So sad and sudden came the call Her sudden death surprised us all A sudden change in a moment fell Without a chance to say farewell You left behind you aching hearts That love is still so dear That never did, nor ever will Forget you, Patricia dear.

Three hundred years ago, the first book ever printed in the United States was produced. Popularly referred to by collectors as the Bay Psalm book, the title page of this first work actually bears the heading "The Whole Book of Palms" as shown by the accompanying reproduction. Only eleven copies of the book are in existence today, and they are priceless.

His Slave Sale Bill
 BELLEVILLE (MPA)—Eldon Leonard possesses an auctioneer's handbill reflecting gold-rush days of 1849. Advertising a sale in Kentucky by a man "leaving for Oregon territory by ox team," the bill offers six slaves, along with other items, for sale in one group, not to be separated.

Race drivers have three cardinal rules when their cars go into a skid and the rules might well be memorized by all motorists, according to Pontiac engineers. They are: Don't touch the brakes, leave the car in gear, turn with the skid not against it.
