Fashion Tips

Handbags are very large this spring but very feminine withal. Even the evening handbag has grown larger and one sees large envelopes of dress material with ruffled trimmings as an accompaniment to the airy summer frocks.

Straw hats are already making their appearance. Some are entirely of straw and others are combined with felt.

With gloves bid fair to be unusually popular this summer, although there are some lovely offerings in color. Pig skin and setal are very good for sport clothes, while suede, antelope and reindeer are evening favorites. Gloves are longer, too, than they were last year.

The new colored gloves for summer come in lovely shades. There are gorgeous forget-me-not blues and shades of gold and rose. And the greens are marvelous.
