Mrs. O'Connor To Open Home For This Affair

Reservations have been pouring in during the past few days for the benefit bridge party which the League of Catholic Women will hold on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles J. O'Connor on Avon Lane.

Proceeds from this party will be used for the League's welfare fund.

Among those planning to attend are Mrs. Charles E. Carcy, Mrs. William F. Blake, Jr., Mrs. Walter B. Hans, Mrs. John G. Wood, Mrs. August Larson, Mrs. Jack Leary, Mrs. Harry B. Huff, Mrs. Joseph A. Sweeney, Mrs. Martin J. Wendell, Mrs. Edmond D. Mansfield and Mrs. William E. McInnes.

Others who expect to attend are Mrs. John O'Tool, Mrs. Harry S. Starr, Mrs. John H. Savage, Mrs. Louis J. Giffels, Mrs. Edward E. Hayes, Mrs. L. Clayton Hill, Miss Edna Kinnally, Mrs. J. W. DeBeaubien, Mrs. Vincent J. Foster, Mrs. J. R. Quinn and Mrs. C. J. Rock.

Mrs. William F. Blake, Sr., is general chairman and is being assisted by a committee composed of Mrs. Leary, Mrs. John C. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Walter L. Connelly, Mrs. Mansfield, Mrs. C. E. McCarthy, Mrs. Stord and Mrs. Huff.

Final plans for this party were completed Tuesday afternoon at a League meeting held at the home of Mrs. James Skiffington, on Maywood road, at which time Mrs. James J. Reilly, Jr., spoke on Holy Week in Rome and the customs that have been observed there for centuries.

Interested in Lectures

Mr. Walter O. Briggs, Jr., was an enthusiastic member of the committee formed by Mrs. Charles J. Shan to bring Prof. Preston W. Slosson, of Ann Arbor, to Birmingham in a series of lectures on world affairs for the purpose of reducing the Community House mortgage.

Mrs. R. M. Shock Will Be Honored By Pen Women

A chocolate party in honor of Mrs. Raymond M. Shock, Charing Cross road, will be given by the Detroit branch of the National League of American Pen Women on March 29 at the home of Mrs. Sina York O'Brien, Pierrre street.

Mrs. Shock who writes under the name of Bateau Shock has just published a book of verse, "Heel Dust and Fans," (G. P. Putnam Sons) and the Detroit Pen Women are marking the occasion in this way.

The party will be small and intimate and will be limited to Mrs. Shock's fellow craftsmen in the branch, who will meet to congratulate still past.

"Heel Dust and Fans" does not include Bateau Shock's sonnets and deeper poetic work, but as the title would imply, a collection of the lighter and more delicate verses which have been collected after previous publication in various periodicals.
