

Sigma Lambda Alumnae Busy With Plans For Bunny Hop On March 23

Ionis Girl Is Wed To David Doherty

Hilda Pfeifer of Ionis and David W. Doherty formerly of Birmingham, were married Feb. 17 in Powellville according to word received here this week.

Mrs. Doherty is a graduate of Ionis High School and Mr. Doherty is a graduate of Baldwin High School and Michigan State College where he was a member of Alpha Gamma Rho.

Mr. and Mrs. Doherty will make their home in Ionis.

Easter Motif To Predominate At This Dance

Sigma Lambda alumnae have their heads together these days evolving plans for a Bunny Hop, which is set for March 23, at the Community House. A Detroit orchestra will furnish the music for dancing, which will continue from 9:30 to 1 o'clock. As the name of the dance suggests, decorations will have an Easter motif, with white bunnies, flowers and a unique lighting effect in use.

June Osborne is general chairman and committee are as follows: Decorations, Eileen deBeaubien and Jane Hanson; publicity, Jeanne Ellis and "Kiki" Carr; orchestra, Elizabeth Loyd and Phyllis Reaney; tickets, Alice Lee Heimiller and Louise Hersey.

Some of the girls planning to attend and their dates are: June Osborne and Ray Grippman, Alice Lee Heimiller and Dick Pope, Marie Smith and Bob Wolfston, Jane Thomas and Wendell Llewellyn, Kate Osborne and Andy Watson, Barbara Pratt and Norman Clark, Jeanne Ellis and Clifford Harvey, Cary Case and Stanley Peterson, Jean Wagner and Bud Stutte, Barbara Case and Bob Fisher, Jane Follis and Cloud Gray, Sue Keller and John Kelley, Josephine Ford and Harry Sevin, Virginia Ford and Jack Reynolds, Barbara Gray and Williams Roling.

Three Girls Are Chosen Candidates For Good Citizenship Pilgrimage

D. A. R. will be announced. Her two alternates will also be named. The Good Citizenship Pilgrimage, conducted by the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, through the State and local organizations, it was announced this week by the Piety Hill chapter.

The girls are Cameron Biggers of Baldwin High School, Anne Nichols of Bloomfield Hills School, and Mildred Panmenter of Roosevelt High School in Keego Harbor. They will join other candidates from high schools throughout the State at a meeting on Saturday morning, March 30, held during the state conference of D. A. R. in Battle Creek. At this event the winner of the four-day trip to Washington, D. C., as guest of the

Dorothy Mae Bell, Edward C. Maxson Take Cuban Trip

Dorothy Mae Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Bell of Birmingham boulevard, and Edward Crowter Maxson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Herbert Maxson of Saginaw, were married Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church with the Rev. W. Glen Harris officiating.

The bride wore a street length frock of aqua blue crepe with a matching turban and a corsage of orchids.

Virginia Bell, her sister's attendant, wore navy blue crepe and her flower turban and accessories were dusty rose.

Aronold Wagner of Bay City was Mr. Maxson's best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bell chose a wine crepe gown with a hat and accessories of a lighter shade.

Following the reception, held at the Community House, the couple left for Cuba and on their return will reside in Bay Rapids.

Mrs. Kirn Entertains Tuesday Afternoon

Mrs. M. G. Kirn was hostess Tuesday afternoon at her home on Puritan avenue in honor of Mrs. A. S. Russell, of Jackson, Tenn., who has been in Birmingham since January visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Russell of Filgrim avenue.
