Presbyterian Men To Hear Komjathy

Louis A. Komjathy, banker and attorney of Detroit, will address members of the Presbyterian men's club when that group meets Thursday evening, March 14, at the church.

Mr. Komjathy was born in Czecho-Slovakia but came to this country when he was 12 years old. After many years he returned for a visit and was there at the time of the Munich episode.

Mr. Komjathy recently addressed a joint meeting of the Birmingham service clubs. He will talk to the Men's club following a dinner to be served at 7 o'clock.

Adult Education In Home Making Will Start Here

Announcement was made this week of the formation of adult education classes at Barnum, Baldwin and Adams Schools in cooking, household budgeting, child care, sewing and allied subjects.

These classes, given in Birmingham about a year and a half ago, will be taught by Mrs. Jane Klier and are being sponsored by Paul Lutzeier, supervisor of adult education in Royal Oak, and Howard D. Crull, superintendent of schools in Birmingham.

The first meeting is to be held at the Baldwin High School Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Klier has announced that her schedule will be as follows: Barnum School, Monday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, 7 to 9; Baldwin High School, Tuesday evenings, 7 to 9 o'clock; Adams School, Tuesday and Thursday afternoon 1 to 5 o'clock.

Schermerhorn Case Dismissed on Appeal

A case against James Schermerhorn, Jr., of Franklin, was dismissed on appeal to Judge Theodore J. Richter's Circuit Court in Detroit, it was learned this week. The original conviction, on a charge of drunk driving, was secured in a Highland Park justice of the peace court.

Christ Church Plans Unusual Vespers Sunday, March 10

On Passion Sunday, March 10, an unusual vesper service will be held at Christ Church Cranbrook Bloomfield Hills, at four o'clock.

The Christ Church choir under the direction of Dr. E. W. Hill and the choir of the Boulevard Temple Methodist Church of Detroit under the direction of Dr. Frederick Protheroe will sing "The Passion According to St. Matthew" as composed by Johann Sebastian Bach. There will be 75 adult voices in all. The boys choir and the girl's Blue Choir consisting of 40 voices will take part in the introduction. The Rev. Arthur D. Klontz, minister of the Temple Church, and the Rev. Charles H. Cadigan, rector of Christ Church Cranbrook will preside.

Soloists are as follows: Mrs. Lois Chapman, Mrs. Mildred Williams, Mrs. Marian Jewell, Orville Griffiths, Hugh Davies, Frank Nicholson, Dean Yocum.

The combined choirs have been working together in preparation for this undertaking for several weeks. Historically, this oratorio has played a very large part in the religious life of the Christian Church.

On Good Friday, 1729, in St. Thomas' Church, Leipzig, Bach produced the "Passion of Our Lord According to St. Matthew," an oratorio which is the deepest expression of devotional feeling that the art of music affords.

Rev. Charles Cadigan Next Guest Speaker

The Rev. Charles H. Cadigan, B. D., rector of Christ Church Cranbrook, will be the guest speaker at the Lenten supper at St. James Episcopal Church Tuesday evening.

Supper will be served at 6:30, there will be a litany service at 7:45 and Mr. Cadigan will speak at 8 o'clock.

Reservations for this dinner may be made by calling 2356 before 5 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Ted Shawn Program In Detroit March 16

Variety and color mark Ted Shawn's newest program called "The Dome" which he and his company will give in the Scottish Rite Cathedral at Masonic Temple, Saturday evening, March 16.

He has used those creative works which have been emerging through the years and which did not fit into the programs of the last several years. Inspired by Shelley's lines, "Life, like a dome of many colored glass, stains the white radiance of eternity," he has created in this production a many-colored picture of life's infinite variety. Consequently this new production called "The Dome" probably has a wider variety of thematic material wrapped in its two hour entertainment than anything he has previously presented. There are 26 dances on the program, all presented as Shawn is quoted as saying: "For the simple reason that we wanted to do them."

The program includes a prologue called, "The Dome," seven dances to the music of Johann Sebastian Bach, a group of 12 dances under the heading: Remembrance of Things Past, Excursions into Visible Song, Studies in Rhythmic Form, and a finale entitled "Jacob's Pillow Concerto."

SEE WHAT 128 HORSEPOWER CAN DO
. . . In the Greatest Performing Eight of Them All

For topflight performance, there's no substitute for POWER! And it costs you several hundred dollars more, in any other car, to match the power Hudson gives you in America's lowest priced straight eight!

This is the Eight that John Cobb, noted British sportsman, drove to a new class record for the stock car flying mile; the Eight that went on to beat anything any other car in its class had ever done, from one to 1000 miles. And it's the Eight which, in official economy tests, not only beat the best ever done by any other straight eight, but actually proved itself more economical than most small sixes!

It's a luxury car as well . . . with its extra roominess; the comfort of Airfoam Seat Cushions; the richness and beauty of genuine Hockanum Woolen upholstery. And in the new Eight De Luxe you will find smart new style touches everywhere, with equipment and fittings that are lavishly complete. Come in . . . see and DRIVE this light-footed leader of the motoring parade!
