Two Birmingham Girls Set June Wedding Dates

June, the traditional month of brides, won't be forgotten in Birmingham, inasmuch as two announcements were forthcoming this week of plans being laid for weddings that will unfold before the June leaf has been torn from the calendar.

Harriett Rogers Flannery, daughter of Mrs. Walter R. Flannery, of Bloomfield Hills, has set June 22 as the date of her marriage to Charles Ernest Reutter, Jr., son of Mrs. Charles E. Reutter, of Rye, N. Y., and Warren, Conn.

Miss Flannery, who has been busy for some months completing final arrangements for her wedding, has chosen St. Anthony Shrine of Duns Scotus College for the ceremony. A reception at Bloomfield Hills Country Club will follow.

Announcement of the wedding party, not yet completed, will be made in the immediate future, Miss Flannery said this week.

Harriett's engagement was announced in January at a large cocktail party.

Florence Bruce Becomes Bride At Quiet Service

Florence Bruce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Bruce, of Davis street, and Frank Isadore, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Isadore, of Snowden avenue, Detroit, were united in a quiet ceremony Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at the First Methodist Church. The Rev. John Edward Martin officiated.

The bride chose for her wedding a gown of white satin taffeta with a shoulder veil. Her bouquet was of white roses and carnations. Maid of honor, Bulah French, wore blue marquisette with tiny blue forget-me-nots in her hair matching those on the gown. Her flowers were pink roses and snapdragons. Mrs. Bruce wore a light blue lace frock with navy accessories and Mrs. Isadore also wore blue. Their corsages were of pink roses.

Following the wedding a reception for 90 guests was held at Miller Hall, Thirteen Mile and Orchard Lake roads. The tables were decorated with spring flowers and a three tiered cake centered the bride's table on which snapdragons in pastel shades were used.

The couple are making their home on Merrill street.

Mathews Students Perform in Recital

Sun Valley Topic For Last Meeting Of Travel Club

Final meeting of the year is to be used profitably by members of the Travel club who have made arrangements to hear a talk and to see movies on a suitable American spot to spend a summer vacation.

During the winter months members of the Travel club have journeyed far and wide to see foreign lands and climes but with the approach of the summer vacation months members of the club deemed it wise to learn of places and resorts in this country where a summer vacation might be spent.

Fletcher Edwards will be the speaker and will bring with him colored sound movies to illustrate his talk on "Summer in Sun Valley."

The meeting Monday is to be held at 8 o'clock at the Community House and following the talk refreshments will be served from tables decorated in the international motif. Each table will be arranged to represent a country that the club visited during this last winter.

This last meeting will be guest night and is open to the public, as were all meetings. Mrs. Sidney Oviatt is in charge of decorating the tables, Mrs. Chester L. Zuck has charge of refreshments and Mrs. J. G. Kehoe made arrangements for the program.

Mrs. James J. Reilly, Jr., was instrumental last fall in organizing the club which is an affiliate of the American Association of University Women.

Mrs. Martin Robinson, of Grand Rapids, will be the week-end guest of the H. Grant Muzzys at their home on Lowell court. Also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Muzzy is Mrs. Muzzy's brother, Paul T. Gervais, of Oak Park, Ill.

Pi Beta Phi Group Luncheon Guests

Members of the Bloomfield Hills alumnae chapter of Pi Beta Phi were guests Tuesday of Mrs. William Lawrence Shaffner and Mrs. Vance H. Day at a luncheon at Orchard Lake Country Club. The meeting is to be held May 28 at Mrs. F. H. McKinney's home on Puritan avenue. Mrs. James Robinson, of Huntington Woods, and Mrs. Harold E. Groves, of Suffield road, both charter members, will be honored at this meeting inasmuch as they will be leaving here shortly.
