

June 8 Is Set for Annual Flower Show of Birmingham Garden Club

Miss Marian Masters Tells of Engagement

Announcement of the engagement of Marian Florence Masters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Masters, of Ann street, to John Parks, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Parks, of Crooks road, was made Saturday evening at a birthday party for Marian. Guests at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stevens, of Pontiac, and Mr. and Mrs. David Stewart, of Clarkston. No date has been set for the wedding.

Here's How Musicale Runs Afoul at Luncheon

Birmingham Musicale members who traveled out to Pine Lake on the annual Club Thursday noon for the annual luncheon meeting returned to their homes here late in the afternoon muttering of "radio" broadcasts, unusual skirts and poetry that carried the flavor of Longfellow.

The mutterings were concerned with the unusual manner in which the usually cut and dried annual reports were presented to members of the club. Mrs. Shelton Wright first in line, stepped up to

Ambitious Plans Now Underway For Lovely Event

It seems that the Birmingham branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden association is in the final stages of planning what is to be held June 8 at the Community House from 3 to 7 o'clock. This annual event, which attracts many exhibitors from outside the club, is one of Birmingham's loveliest floral shows, usually attracting well over 300 entrants.

Mrs. Carl H. Sander is serving as general chairman and has as her assistant Mrs. Elmer G. Freeman. Others who are heading committees are: tables, Mrs. E. Palmer Shelton; artistic arrangements, Mrs. Jonathan M. Ball; picture frames, Mrs. Arthur E. Roberts; smart arrangements, Mrs. Langley Smart; specimen blooms, Mrs. Norman E. Clarke; photography, Mrs. C. V. Crockett; juvenile classifications, Mrs. H. Ross Mack; registration, Mrs. Harry M. Dennis; judges, Mrs. William McCallum; publicity, Mrs. R. E. Anderson; decorations, Mrs. John W. Knecht; tea, Mrs. O. F. Achtenjagen and Mrs. Arthur G. Ripper; refreshments for children, Mrs. H. Bolles; decorations for tea table, Mrs. Lewis C. Dibble.

DATE IS SET

The mother-daughter banquet of the First Presbyterian Church is to be held Friday in the church parlors. Invitations were given by Mrs. W. Glen Harris and a double quartet consisting of Mrs. E. A. Prothrope and daughter, Doris; Mrs. Harry Clark and daughter, Mary; Earl G. Potter and her daughter, Ruth Mary; and Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner, and her daughter, Mary, will sing. Edgar L. Bailey will be accompanist.

Additional music will be provided by a string ensemble. The mothers' welcome will be delivered by Mrs. H. D. Harris and Suzanne Wood will give the response. Mrs. Potter is in charge of the banquet and Mrs. Gardner is in charge of the ticket sale.

Mother-Daughter Banquet on Friday Is Being Planned

The mother-daughter banquet of the First Presbyterian Church is to be held Friday in the church parlors. Invitations were given by Mrs. W. Glen Harris and a double quartet consisting of Mrs. E. A. Prothrope and daughter, Doris; Mrs. Harry Clark and daughter, Mary; Earl G. Potter and her daughter, Ruth Mary; and Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner, and her daughter, Mary, will sing. Edgar L. Bailey will be accompanist.

Four Women Attend Ceremonies Monday

Four Birmingham women were in Ann Arbor Monday to attend ceremonies connected with the burning of the mortgage of the Alpha Chi Omicron sorority chapter in Ann Arbor to build a house especially for its needs. The house at 1004 Olivia avenue was erected in 1916.

Earl Rumsey and his son, Wyland of Oakland, Calif., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Appell, of Elm street. Mrs. A. Thomas Schooley, of Riverbush avenue, entertained Tuesday afternoon at luncheon at Devon Gables.

Helene Fitzmaurice Wendell Interiors

Helene Fitzmaurice Wendell Interiors. Furniture Upholstering. Carpets Refinishing. Draperies Wood Carving. Cabinet Making. Telephone BIRMINGHAM 292.

LEON
Invites you to become INVITING
Be lovely to look at. We'll give you an individual hairdo that will invite compliment from every one who sees you.
FREDERICK BILLING and ZOHOS Permanent Waves
HOT WEATHER aggravates present foot troubles and creates new ones. Let us show you how to insure foot comfort with the Brain-Masseur.
Non-Masseur Brain-Masseur
Water Massage

LEON Parisian Hairdresser
Phone 2312 Birmingham
Hanna Bldg.
Corner Woodward and Maple

May we suggest?
... an Orange Blossom Ring on her finger assures her pride of ownership of the utmost quality and quality. The expression of her loveliness and quality. We demand that your rings be in line with your personality. We demand that your rings be in line with your personality. We demand that your rings be in line with your personality.
Genuine Orange Blossom
ENGAGEMENT AND WEDDING RINGS

Connolly's Jewelers

16 West Huron Pontiac

...A FREE AND TIMELY RIDLEY SERVICE

Summer STORAGE For Winter Clothes INCLUDED
IN OUR REGULAR CLEANING PRICE

Pay Only the Cleaning Charge Next Fall!!

RIDLEY Cleaners
138 S. WOODWARD PHONE 380

Women Golfers Open Their Season

Women golfers at the Birmingham Golf Club got under way Friday, the opening day of the season which promises to be an active and busy one. For nine holes low scores on odd holes. Mrs. Lester Dodd and Mrs. Maurice Miller, of Detroit, came in ahead of all others.

Spring flowers were used on the tables and about the dining room when the first luncheon was held at 12:30. It was followed at 2 o'clock by a business meeting. Among those from Birmingham who attended were Mrs. G. W. Sills, Mrs. E. T. Hill, Mrs. John D. Maynard, Mrs. William A. Kent and Mrs. A. C. Kent.

Since the golfing season closed last fall two new babies are recorded on the records here. Born to women golfers, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin H. Knorr have become parents, since last fall, the Pat Sawyers have for three months old son, Mac.

Junior Musicale Chorus Will Sing

The chorus of the junior Musicale is to be featured at the meeting of the Women's Unity of the First Presbyterian Church when that group meets Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors. Composing the choir are Sue Averill, Mary Gardner, Pat Schooley, Lucille Chamblaine, Elaine Seeley and Jean Atkinson. Leah Davidson is accompanist. They will sing "Children's Prayer" from "Hansel and Gretel" and "The Lord's Prayer" by Albert Hay Malotte.

Bob Wing will give an organ recital and Mrs. Paul L. Penfield will be in charge of the devotionals.

Mrs. Evan J. Parker entertained Wednesday noon at luncheon at her home on Puritan avenue for Mrs. A. G. Ots, Mrs. John H. Fitch, Jr., Mrs. Richard Bragaw, Mrs. Joseph Hinshaw, Mrs. William J. Belknap, Mrs. H. M. Kinnee, Mrs. W. G. Hutchinson, Mrs. R. K. Evans, Mrs. E. M. Beresford, Mrs. Carl L. Bradt, Mrs. G. W. J. Linton, Mrs. Harold W. Holmes, Mrs. Leigh Lynch and Mrs. L. M. Farr. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Farr are planning an entertaining Saturday evening at dinner for a group of their friends.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE PROGRAMS
Sunday, May 19 6:15 to 6:30 P. M.
Monday, May 20 5:15 to 5:30 P. M.
WCAR
1100 Kc
PONTIAC

SUMMER TRAVEL
Two Fascinating Tours
1. The Canadian Rockies and Alaska
2. Old Mexico
Join a congenial group and enjoy a carefree vacation under experienced guidance.
KATHERINE PANTLIND TRAVEL SERVICE
519 Harmon St., Birmingham, Phone Bham 2047

Social Briefs

Mrs. Elbridge G. Newhall, Jr., will open her home on Arlington street Saturday evening for a tea for members and friends of Camp Interlochen for Girls. It is being given on the occasion of her last summer at the camp and music will be provided by a harp and an accordion player. Elan Newhall will present several dances.

Mrs. Clement A. Penrose, Jr., and Mrs. Ralph Manuel returned Tuesday from a three weeks' sojourn at Virginia Beach, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester R. Munge, of Cedar drive, attended the dinner at Devon Gables Wednesday evening which the Sigma Xi Chapter of the Detroit Presbyterian Church held.

Mrs. Kirby B. White, of Willets street, has returned to Birmingham from a three weeks' visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hoyt, of Beloit, Wis.

Mrs. C. LeRoy Austin, of Westwood street, was the guest of honor at a luncheon at the Flint Country Club in honor of Mrs. Austin, which the Sigma Xi Chapter of the Detroit Presbyterian Church is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Stewart W. Kehler, of Willets street.

Charles Baird Cunningham, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus E. Cunningham, of Bryn Mawr road, will entertain a group of friends Friday on the occasion of his sixth birthday. Those invited are David Sale, Richard Young, Robert H. Marcus, Joseph B. Mary Rathbone, Joanna Harley, Nancy McComb, Joyce Thomas, Howard Green, Ardis Galloway, and Mrs. Wright and Charles' brother, Marcus, Jr.

Mrs. K. J. Williams, of Greenwood avenue, will have as her guest next week at her home, Charles Russell, of Grand Rapids, who is coming down for the Vassar Alumnae convention which is to be held there.

Mrs. Edwin H. Strunk was hostess Monday afternoon to members of her book club. Assisting were Mrs. Dale Spicer and Mrs. Garland Tait.

Mrs. Harold J. Chalk entertained her sewing club at her home on Manor road Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. John K. Ormrod was hostess Monday afternoon at luncheon at her home on Waddington drive for members of the board of the League of Women Voters.

Honoring William Stark, of Ludington who was the week-end guest of Betty Blythe, of Footing lane, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus E. Cunningham were hosts Sunday evening at their home on Bryn Mawr. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Stauffer, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Ranney, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McComb, of Birmingham, Roy Gamble and Mr. and Mrs. Sten Jacobson, of Detroit.

Mrs. William A. McCarty was expected Wednesday at her home on Pilgrim avenue from a four weeks' stay in Florida. Mrs. McCarty who made the southern jaunt with her, returned about two weeks ago.

Final Program For J. D. Club On Wednesday

Mrs. John Chandler, of Forest avenue, will entertain the J. D. Club Wednesday evening for the final party of the season.

A variety program has been arranged for the social portion of the evening. Mrs. Alexander Hatos will sing two Mexican songs; Mrs. David MacMillan will give a croquet and Mrs. Robert Bolles, of Ferndale, will sing two soprano solos. Mrs. William Killy and Mrs. Clare Flood will give a short "radio" drama entitled "A Home to Rent." Games and singing will conclude the program.

Honor guests will be Mrs. Walter Tonney, of Belford; Mrs. Agnes Graham, of Detroit; Mrs. Mary Shepard, of Windsor; Mrs. Bolles, of Ferndale; and Mrs. Paul Kocher, of Birmingham.

Annie Oakley's Niece to Speak on Friday

The Birmingham Manuscript club, Friday afternoon, will travel back to the days when the West spelled glamour, which Mrs. N. A. Swartwout, niece of Annie Oakley, famous shot and rider at one time. Traveling with Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show, will speak at the meeting to be held at the home of Dorothy York, of York Place, Royal Oak.

Mrs. Swartwout, who lives in Royal Oak, traveled with her aunt and knew all the details of her life. She is at present compiling a biography of Annie Oakley and part of the material will be presented to the Manuscript club of Birmingham at this time. Mrs. Swartwout will also exhibit some of the original souvenirs and gifts, Annie collected in America and Europe during a colorful and eventful life.

Mrs. Marcus E. Cunningham, of Bryn Mawr road will leave Saturday to visit her father, Charles Baird in Kansas City.

Creta Maxine Stiver Wed To Pontiac Man

Creta Maxine Stiver, of Birmingham, daughter of Mrs. Peter Pauley, of Scotchdale, Neb., and John Stiver, of Mitchell, Neb., was married Thursday night to James Belford, of Illinois. The Rev. Vernon L. Stevens officiated at the Methodist parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Belford, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, were their only attendants. The bride wore a powder blue crepe afternoon dress with matching hat and navy blue and beige accessories. She wore a corsage of pink roses, pink hyacinths and white sweet peas. Mrs. Belford wore a black and pink crepe dress with a corsage of pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Belford are residing on Cottage street in Pontiac.

Philip Welch Weds Geraldine Harris

At a quiet home ceremony Saturday at 7:30 in the evening, the marriage of Geraldine Harris, of Pontiac, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stockwell, to Philip C. Welch, of Birmingham, son of Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Welch, was solemnized.

Rev. Joseph E. Mears officiated at the ceremony in the home of the bridegroom's parents. Attendees were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Norman, of Walled Lake, and uncle of the bride. Also present were Mr. Floyd Tompkins and Mr. and Mrs. Neil L. Welch of Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Partlan, of Detroit.

The couple will make their home at 421 North Saginaw street in Pontiac. Mr. Welch is employed at The Birmingham Eccentric.

Mrs. Harold M. Armstrong was hostess Tuesday afternoon at a bridge luncheon for Mrs. H. W. Wendell, of Birmingham, Mrs. Philip Philip, Mrs. Robert Hesse, Mrs. Joseph Brooks, Mrs. Dwight Rogers, of Grosse Pointe, Mrs. Frank Conroy, Mrs. Malcolm McGregor and Mrs. Raymond Eddin, of Detroit.

Clearance

Further drastic reductions on our entire stock of famous makes of coats, suits, dresses, costumes, furs, hats, etc.

Coats and Suits
originally $16.95 to $59.95
$10 to $49.95

Dresses
originally $6.95 to $49.95
$2.95 to $25.00

Costumes
originally $14.95 to $49.95
$8.95 to $29.95

Millinery
originally $2.95 to $6.50
$1.98 to $3.98

DAVIDSON'S
Woods and Ave.—BIRMINGHAM

Only CADILLAC could build it!

BEAUTIFUL PERMANENTS by SERRA $7.50 to $10.00

Styled to fit your individual personality.
Personality haircutting and styling by Francesco Serra, Jr. MASTER STYLIST
Birmingham, 3029 Birmingham Theatre Bldg. Detroit, OH 255 612 EATON TOWER

Serra Salon
"Coiffeurs of Fashion"

Only CADILLAC could build it!

BECAUSE LaSalle alone in its field is equal by performance and economy—nor can you find another car as uniformly fine at LaSalle's low price. It can't be done. Only Cadillac engineering could produce such superlative results. See LaSalle first. You'll find there's no use looking further!

LA SALLE
Cadillac Motor Car Division, Birmingham Branch
Woodward at Willits — Phone 1021 — Birmingham, Mich.