

Leta Moore Wed To E. A. Renshaw At Church Affair

Before an altar banked with palms, white peonies, and lighted by burning tapers Leta Ernestine Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Moore, became the bride of Eddie A. Renshaw, son of Mrs. Anna Renshaw, of Rochester, in a ceremony performed by the Rev. J. D. Nelson in the First Baptist Church Wednesday evening, May 15.

For her wedding the bride wore an ivory satin gown fashioned on princess lines, with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves that ended at points at the wrist. Her shoulder-length circular veil of tulle bore a border of lace. Her bouquet was of white roses and valley lilies.

Loin Butler, of Kansas City, and Elsie Marquardt, of Utica, the bride's attendants, wore blue and yellow silk net, respectively. They carried talisman roses and blue iris.

Assisting Mr. Renshaw as best man was his brother, Norman, also of Rochester, and ushers were another brother, Gerald, and Howard Wilbrett, of Utica.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Moore chose a navy blue sheer frock and wore with it white accessories. Her coronet was of gardenias. Mrs. Renshaw's gown was a sheer print in navy and white. White sweet peas formed her corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception for about 120 was held in the church parlors. White stock and pink carnations were used about the room and pink rosebuds were used to decorate the bridal table that was covered by a lace cloth and centered with the wedding cake.

The couple is living at 2550 Dequindre road.

New York Wedding Attracts Randalls

Mr. and Mrs. W. Clifton Randall, of Shirley drive, and their daughter, Rosalind, have just returned to their home here from New York City where they attended the wedding Saturday of Bettie Bea Randall, of Alpena, Miami and New York, to Robert Caulfield Draper, of Hopedale, Mass.

The ceremony was performed in St. Bartholomew's Church with the Rev. Robert W. Woodroffe, Jr., former assistant rector of Christ Church Cranbrook, officiating.

The bride, a niece of the Randalls, is well-known in Birmingham from many visits she has made here. The couple will live in Hopedale.

Mother-Daughter Banquet on Friday

A large group attended the mother-daughter banquet of the First Presbyterian Church held on Friday evening in the church parlors. Mrs. Earl G. Potter was in charge of arrangements and Mrs. H. H. Gardner had charge of the ticket sale.
