Musicales Throws Active Support to Local Record Sale

Many Interested In The Success Of This Project

When the music appreciation records go on sale at the Community House Friday it will be largely through the influence of the Birmingham Musicales who have worked incessantly during the last several weeks to insure the sale of the masterpiece records in this community.

Believing that many in Birmingham and its surrounding territory have found it inconvenient to make special trips to Detroit each week to buy the records as they went on sale in that city, members of the Musicales have campaigned until this week it became known that the records would be available for a short time in Birmingham.

The 12 symphonic recordings of great masterpieces to be distributed here beginning Friday are doing much to change the minds of the whole approach to music. Prof. Joseph E. Maddy of the University of Michigan Extension division, said recently:

"In addition to making available master works of music performed by the greatest orchestras at very low cost," Prof. Maddy has pointed out, "the Music Appreciation Committee has done much toward exploding the virtuoso-conductor bubble which has become almost a menace to the development of music in America."

Roller Skating Fad Is Popular In Birmingham

The little girl who goes roller skating each afternoon and returns home at sundown with skinned knees and bruised shins is today being joined by her parents who have just recently become roller skating conscious.

Her mother and father have become so intrigued by the roller skating fad that today they are making up parties to do a little homework on plain and fancy skating. And they are naving the full price, too, with stiff muscles that fairly scream the next day.

Monday night seems to be a popular night for Birmingham to do its skating as it witnessed by two parties this week, one at Clawson and the other at Keego Harbor.

The Young Married club, which meets all during the winter for roller, scooted down to Clawson to take advantage of arrangements that had been made by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Strunk, the Charles A. Kreutzlers, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Gawne, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Restrick, Jr., and the J. R. Wagners.

Included in the group that went to Keego Harbor to skate were the Wallace Brodes and the Skop R. Dodds, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Spiegel, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Ball, the Jonathan M. Balls and the Robert M. Balls, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. T. Norville Hubbard, the Ralph and Backuses, Mr. and Mrs. Robert William Essig, the Warren Olsens and Mr. and Mrs. John Lemke, of Detroit.

Jean Cutler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Y. Cutler, of Pilgrimage road, was hostess at a dinner party at Devon Gables Saturday evening preceding the May Party at the Community House. The occasion also marked Jean's 13th birthday anniversary. Fourteen guests were invited.
