

Country Clubs Vie With Each Other for Gala Decoration Day Festivities

Elaborate Plans Now Underway For This Occasion

There are many in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills who are anxiously awaiting the opening gun Thursday for the Decoration Day festivities at the country clubs.

Elaborate plans are underway at three nearby clubs who are vying with one another for the year's most festive Memorial Day celebration.

Decorations Day at Oakland Hills Country Club will be observed Thursday but there will be many who will still be celebrating the holiday at the club on Saturday and Sunday. Golfers at this club are looking forward to an unusual athletic afternoon on Thursday when the kickers combined handicaps get underway after luncheon. From 2 to 4 o'clock there will be races and games for the children and special entertainment is being planned for the children from 4 to 6 o'clock. Buffet dinner will be served and there will be dancing from 8 to 10 p. m.

Saturday evening's dinner dancing, with dinner at 7 o'clock and dancing beginning at 9 o'clock is also a part of the golf event. Activities for the golf tournament Saturday and Sunday. The same general outline of activities is being arranged by Plum Hollow Golf Club. Golf will be the feature of the morning with buffet dinner at 6 o'clock and movies in the evening. Plans are also being completed for a dinner Saturday evening.

A kickers' handicap is planned for Thursday morning at Birmingham Golf Club and will be followed by a buffet luncheon at noon. A mixed two-ball foursome with selective drives and alternate shots is part of the afternoon's golf program. Dinner will be served from 5:30 to 9:30.

Bloomfield Hills Country Club will hold a dinner dance Thursday evening for members of that club as the opening party of the coming year. Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. O'Connor will have a party as their guests at this affair will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Flint and the junior Edward Tuckers. Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Wilson will entertain a large group and their guests at the dinner and dance.

Leah Davidson To Give Recital On Wednesday

Leah Davidson, 15 years old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Davidson, of Worth street, will be presented in a piano concert Wednesday evening, June 5, at the Community House at 8:15 by her teacher, Miss Margaret Sander.

Assisting Leah in this recital will be Mrs. Emily Mutter Adams.

Three are Elected To Board of Guild

Three were elected to the board of directors of St. Dunstan's Guild at a meeting held Sunday evening in Guild Hall of Christ Church Cranbrook. Those named to the board were Mrs. E. T. Boardman, Mrs. J. Robert F. Swanson and Hubert Davis who will fill vacancies left by Mrs. Sheldon R. Noble, Mrs. John W. Blanchard and Mrs. Richard P. Haseman.

Couple Will Wed This Evening at 9 In Baptist Church

Grace Marie Bartholomew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bartholomew, of Santa Barbara drive, will become the bride of Glenn D. Rhodes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Rhodes, of Pontiac, in a ceremony to be performed this evening in the First Baptist Church with the Rev. J. A. Nelson officiating.

The service will be read at 9 o'clock before an altar banked with white peonies and palms and lighted.

For her wedding the bride will wear a gown of ivory satin fashioned in the latest style with gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Maid of honor will be Dorothy Anderson, sister of the bride, and best man will be Joyce Dickenson, of Detroit. Marjorie Livemore, of Flint and Mrs. Harold Bosenstein, of Toledo and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Houston, of Chicago.

C. W. Rhoades, of Detroit, will be the best man. The bride and groom will be Irving Dulle, of Detroit, Edward Osborne, of Lansing, and LeRoy Bartholomew, brother of the bride.

Horse Show Ball to Climax Busy Week Here in June

With Detroit's National Horse Show being bigger, better and lasting longer than ever before, the plans for the entertainment of the exhibitors and judges provide four days of teas, suppers and breakfasts climaxed by the Horse Show Ball on Thursday, June 13.

This year the ball will be, as in the past, a subscription affair but all guests are requested to appear in formal attire. At 11 o'clock on the morning of the 13th Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. James B. Johnson, Jr. have asked the exhibitors and judges to breakfast at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club. Following the afternoon performance on that day the same group will go to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Vernor where Mr. and Mrs. Morgan D. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Shuell, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Lerchen, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. William McLintock, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thomas, Joseph Little and Lewis Bredin will welcome their

Marilyn Musser, Jack Birthing Wed This Morning

Marilyn Louise Musser, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Fred C. Musser, of Detroit, was to become the bride of Jack Everett Birthing, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Birthing, of Rivenook avenue, this morning at 10 o'clock at a ceremony to be performed in the North Woodward Avenue Congregational Church in Detroit with the Rev. Dr. Charles Haven Meyers officiating.

For her wedding the bride has chosen a pink tulle suit with which she will wear white accessories. Her corsage is to be lilies of the valley. Her only attendant, Kay Davis of Highland Park, was to wear a powder blue crepe gown. Her flowers were to be pink carnations.

Decorating the chapel there will be bouquets of larkspur and other D. Rhodes, of Pontiac, in a ceremony to be performed this evening in the First Baptist Church with the Rev. J. A. Nelson officiating.

The service will be read at 9 o'clock before an altar banked with white peonies and palms and lighted.

Women's Group Views 2,000 Dolls At Grosse Pointe

Members of the literary department of the Women's club visited the home of Mrs. James W. Hughes on Fisher road in Grosse Pointe Tuesday afternoon where they viewed the collection of 2,000 dolls which Mrs. Hughes has been gathering during the last 14 years.

Many of these dolls were purchased by Mrs. Hughes but several are gifts of friends who have traveled to far corners of the earth and have become interested in this hobby.

Mrs. Hughes' sole purpose in gathering these various dolls is to Redeemer Evangelical Lutheran Church will hold a scavenger hunt this evening. How exceedingly important it is . . .

IT was Marshall Field who once said: "A single letter can be worth a million dollars!" He was, of course, thinking of a business letter. None the less important, though, are the letters which you write socially. Remember, in your correspondence, that you actually transport yourself to the reader. Be certain that your stationery adequately reflects yourself!

We have many new styles in engraved and monogrammed stationery and visiting cards. There is, after all, no substitute for genuine engraving! Dies ordered here will be properly and correctly executed.
