BALDWIN HI-LIGHTS

By ANN NONIMOUS Summers coming along and loads of you folks will be thinking of trips, cottages and everything connected with hot weather.

Dorothy Ann Dye trucked on down to Carmel last week-end for a rollicking good time at a dance.

Initials in Homerom 210—Warren Watts is S. S. and G. and Ginny Kalbfus is C. C. Everyone is still trying to figure out what they mean.

And when that spiffy tea was put for the high school sale at the Community House, Marion Gilbreath, Clover Babcock, Jenny Bell and Lane Ellen Ford did most of the work but Faye Anderson, Ansky Neff and Sue Wood were boosted.

Amie has picked a hit parade for you children—Dorothy Peering, Doris Franklin, Barbara Sauer, Babetta Wiley, Emile Giff and Bill Cole.

Imagine—Warner Forsyth Strings—After Johnny Wilson Happy Days are Here Again—Way back in the gay of 14, said, "no, or not to be, that is the question;" but the new streamlined super-duper arrangement of it, is "to was, or not to is, that is the ask."

Maroons Drop Golf Match in Rain Storm

Playing in the rain the Birmingham golfers dropped their second game to Redford Union 10-3. Rain has obstructed the Maroon team in all nine of its matches so far.

Senior Skip Day June 7; to Leave Fund for Track

Put-in-Bay is the place chosen for Senior Skip Day, June 7. The students will leave from the school on buses around 8:30 a. m. as the boat leaves the dock at 10:00 and returns at 8:00 p. m.

The special event of the evening will be the announcement by Howard D. Crull, superintendent of schools, of journalists elected to Quill and Scroll and Mrs. George F. Johnson's announcement of the winner of the Johnson Memorial Plaque as the best student-athlete of the year.

The class of June 1940 voted to leave money to the track fund as the class gift.

Seven Baldwin trackmen competed at the state meet last Saturday in East Lansing and only three placed as Birmingham scored 53.4 points.

Gilbert Places 2nd At East Lansing

By RICHARD HARRELL The only high spot for Birmingham in the Michigan High School State track meet last Saturday at East Lansing was Dick Gilbert's time of 52.2 seconds in the 440. This time clips nine tenths of a second of the previous Baldwin High School record of 53.1 seconds made by Byron Colgrove in 1938.

The light Birmingham tracksters required only 5:14 points, placing behind 13 other class B schools, many of whom had already beaten in previous meets.
