Stephanie Buckeridge Will Present Dance Pupils in Recital on May 17

Stephanie Buckeridge, 15 year old student at Baldwin High School, will present her dance pupils in a recital Friday evening, May 17, at the Playhouse.

Stephanie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Buckeridge, of Willis street, began teaching dancing two years ago in the home of her parents. She is believed to be the youngest dance instructor in Birmingham.

About 40 of Stephanie's pupils will appear in the recital and the performance will consist of three main parts, beginning with characters taken from the Mother Goose rhymes.

The Mother Goose theme will be presented by the young speech student, Virginia Marsten. In the cast will be Nancy Binham, Sally Richards, Barbara Hubbard, Nancy Carrier, Jay Kinley, Nancy Greenzbach, Nancy Walker, Nancy Kendall, Barbara Merchberger, Martha Merram, Priscilla Martz, Julia Berz, Joan Sternal, Janet McLeese, Winifred Roensch, Beverly Brennan, Peggy Ann Reed, Esther Clark, Lois McLeese, Kathryn Walker, Alice Richards, Sarah Reed and Patsy Hubbard.

Act II will depict a happy day from each month of the year. Several pupils from the Mother Goose will appear together with Ricky Lou Vich, Betty Cady, Nancy Heacock, Barbara Carrier, Carol Jean Peterson, Amy Lou Strunk, Parker Bogue, Max and Bob Roensch, Mary Ann and Dorothy Nixon, Greta Bergeshagen and Mary Lou Brungara.

In this act Stephanie will dance to numbers to "Voice of Spring" and "Tales of the Vienna Woods." She will also present a Spanish number and do a tap routine. All the pupils will be featured in "The White Ballet" which will be the concluding number on the program.

Mrs. Charles L. Richards will be accompanist.

Barbara Horton Feted at Shower

Miss Barbara Horton, whose marriage to Joseph Irwin Robinson of Buffalo, looms in the near future, was honored given on Tuesday afternoon, at a tea and honeymoon shower given by Mrs. Frank H. Mellinger and Mrs. D. Warren Russell, at Mrs. Mellinger's home on Safford road.

The tea table was laid in crystal and silver, with a crystal bowl holding variegated spring flowers in pastel tones and white tapers. Miniature hairbrushes and suitcases were used as favors. Shower gifts for the bride were placed in a large traveling bag, tied with a big white bow.

Miss Dorothy Ray, honored guest, was assisted by her mother, Mrs. D. Warren Russell, and her father, Mr. John F. Horton.

Among other gifts from Birmingham who plan to attend the dinner dance at the Detroit Boat club by the Junior group of the Goodwill Industries. Their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mudge, III, Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Chamberlin, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Aehlengagen and Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Sheppard.

Annual Meeting At the Playhouse Wednesday Night

Annual meeting of the Village Players to be held Wednesday at 8 o'clock will be in the Playhouse rather than in the Community House as originally stated. Officers for the coming year are to be elected at this time.

Final event of the year will be the annual picnic which is to be held Friday, May 17, at Orchard Lake Country Club.

Harry S. Nichols is general chairman and assisting him is Mrs. C. Howard Donnelly, who is in charge of tickets. On Mrs. Donnelly's committee are Mrs. Charles M. Huff, Mrs. Louis J. Giffels, Mrs. Robert G. Bradley, Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Thomas H. Adams and Mrs. Paul Neal Averill.

Reservations for the picnic may be made with any of these persons.

Tea Compliments Young Mothers

Young mothers of St. James Church will be honored at a Mother's Day tea, to be given Friday afternoon, at the parish house. Mrs. Arnold C. Shoup is chairman and the affair will be assisted by Mrs. Bruce B. Van Dusen, Mrs. Charles Barr Field, Mrs. Henry Ward Boylin and Mrs. William Martin.

GOLFING OPENS

Golfing season at Oakland Hills Country Club, originally scheduled to open last week and has been postponed to Friday of this week, it has been announced. Women golfers will hold a luncheon at noon on that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frances Pomeroy are now living on Harrow road having moved there only recently from Villa Road.

Movies of Guatemala Shown by C. L. Cray

Last meeting of the year for the Adams School Parent-Teacher association was held Monday evening at 8 o'clock when members were shown movies taken by C. L. Cray on a trip to Guatemala.

The total population of Guatemala is two and a half million, Mr. Cray pointed out, and nearly half of this total are Indians. They are a devote people he stated and although Roman Catholicism is the chief religion they have their idol worship on the side.

At the time the Crays made the trip, Mrs. Cray was said to be the first white woman to visit several places in the interior.
