Edwin Minks, chairman of the V. F. W. Buddy Poppy committee, in charge of the local poppy sale.

The American Legion will also sell its poppies May 25. The sale proceeds are devoted exclusively to relief activities, with one cent from each poppy sold allotted to the maintenance and expansion of the V. F. W. National Home for widows and orphans of ex-servicemen at Eaton-Randolph, Mich. The success of the annual sale has facilitated the erection of new buildings during the past several years, and a number of additional children and mothers have been thus accommodated. The Home still covers 640 acres.

Arrangements have been completed for the sale of Buddy Poppies in Birmingham by the City of Birmingham Post No. 2643 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars on Friday, May 25, according to post officers. The name of the Buddy Poppy is registered by the V. F. W. and no one not authorized by the local post will be permitted to sell them. Each flower bears a green label, and as further precaution V. F. W. poppy sellers will bear evidence of identification, it was announced yesterday by Commander
