Bloomfield Hills Has 2 Car Fires

Two car fires in the Bloomfield Hills district, both occurring about noon, one on Saturday and the other Tuesday, brought the Bloomfield Hills city fire department out for two calls this week.

The canvas covering the rear of a truck driven by Ed Platt, 12127 Gallager avenue, Detroit, caught fire Tuesday noon on Platt was driving past the Fox and Hounds Inn. A passing police car noticed the flames and notified the fire department. Damage was negligible.

Saturday afternoon at 1:25 p. m. flames caused by a short in the battery of a car driven by William Mills, 7 Woodland drive, Grosse Pointe, caused considerable damage, mostly to the upholstery of a car owned by his father, William W. Mills.

Mills was on his way to visit his sister, Mrs. Washburne Wright, who lives in Hickory Grove road near Lahser, when the car burst into flames.
