Miss Denker to Wed
 Ruth W. Denker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Denker, of California drive, will be married to Edmund J. Ward, son of Mrs. Marie Ward of Detroit, on Saturday evening, Oct. 12, at the Redford Avenue Presbyterian Church. Miss Denker has chosen Mrs. Milton Denker, Miss Virginia Gaul, Mrs. Edward Denker and Miss Elsie Turner as her attendants. Little Nancy Ann Denker will be flower girl and Eddie Denker, Jr., will be the ring bearer. These little people are cousins. A reception for 150 guests following the marriage service, will take place at Plum Hollow Golf Club.

The young couple are building their new home on California drive. It will be completed in the early winter in the meantime, following a Southern honeymoon, they will reside on Steel Avenue.

'costume minded,' come and enjoy the fun anyway.
 Mr. and Mrs. Myron J. Schibold, of San Diego boulevard, attended a dinner party at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club on Saturday evening. Last week-end, the Schibolds enjoyed, an autumn breakfast ride with the Salle de Tuscan Club of riders. Joan de Tuscan will be remembered as an Olympic fencing champion.

Mrs. A. G. Neubauer, of Saratoga boulevard, will be hostess at a tea and shower in honor of Mrs. John Traster, of Detroit, this Thursday afternoon. Twelve guests are expected.

Pleasant Surprise
 We received a surprise last Tuesday evening at the First Presbyterian Church, and a pleasant surprise it was, too. Not only did a large bunch of Scout leaders go through with a rather intricate ceremony almost completely unrecognized and with many a hitch, but another couple of rather junior Senior Scouts of the expression may be allowed) took distinguished parts in the ceremony of presentation of the gavel to the new Moderator of the Michigan Synod of the Presbyterian Church. One of them made a speech and the other a prayer, and they did it well, thoroughly, and in a manner that was a credit to themselves and Scouting.

They were Eagle Scouts Newell (Jerry) Wright and Bill Hooper; Jerry on the speech and Bill on the prayer. The speech was swell, as we've said before, and the prayer was both reverent and Scoutingly. Also Bill, honor and glory to him forever, when ordering the Scout sign of reverence, said "Scout sign of reverence PLEASE" which is correct, instead of the usually used "Scout sign of reverence TAKE" which is absolutely and unmitigatedly wrong.

Scout Benefaction
 Did you know that the correct form of the Scout Benefaction is "benefaction" and not "benefaction," "benefaction," etc., instead of the Great Scoutmaster? 'Tis so me hearties, and it would be well to change your troop ceremony accordingly. Just why the Dicty would feel insulted by a "benefaction" is not explained, but some blessed soul seems to have thought that such would be the case, and the Powers That Be spinelessly agreed, and the form is now different.

Mrs. Milton Denker and Mrs. Edward C. Denker gave a miscellaneous shower for Miss Denker, last Friday night. The supper table carried out the traditional color scheme of crystal and silver. Tall white tapers in silver candelabra stood on either side of a large silver bowl filled with baby chrysanthemums. Eighteen guests were present.

Hop, Skip, Jump
 A. B. Sutherland returned on Saturday from a hop, skip and jump trip, to Cleveland, Pittsburgh and Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo C. France, of Lathrup boulevard, spent last week in Grand Rapids. Young Tommie remained in the custody of his Uncle and Aunt.

Mrs. Lewis C. Dunn, of Golden Gate drive, gave a luncheon on Monday for the Detroit Literary Club. Mrs. Dunn arranged the program on American music which that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn and daughter, Mary Lou, attended a fish fry party at the Van Dyke Estate in Plymouth, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Diederich gave a supper party in their home on San Rose boulevard, Saturday last, in honor of Jack Diederich of California, who visited his parents this past week. Sixteen guests were present. The evening was spent in playing various card games and spinning the roulette wheel.

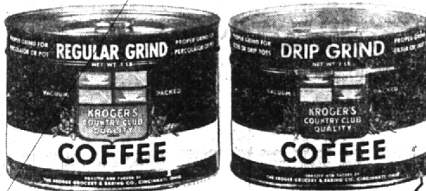

Hallowe'en Dance
 Lathrup Women's Club is making arrangements for a Hallowe'en dance to be given the night of Oct. 26, in the school auditorium. This is to be a costume party, and if it comes up to the standard of the one given last year, it will be a wow! Even though you are not
