Piano for Baldwin High An Ambition Of Mrs. D. L. Tate

To Mrs. D. L. Tate, the project which the Birmingham Musicals is wholeheartedly endorsing this year is to provide Baldwin High School with a suitable piano, in more than just an ordinary project—it is a dream of many years standing.

Mrs. Tate, president of the Musicals for the second year, has always been tremendously interested in young people and their problems and she has been particularly fond of the young people who were interested in music.

Consequently this project to raise funds to purchase a piano for Baldwin has long been a pet idea of hers and since coming into the assembly room, Mrs. Tate has been interested in raising money for the instrument.

Parents' Teachers' associations throughout the city are cooperating with the Musicals in the drive to raise money. First step in the drive is to be the benefit bridge to be held in Baldwin High School auditorium on Wednesday evening, Oct. 23, at 8 o'clock.
