NOTE: The Eccentric is pleased to publish stories of events which have local value and which are written by persons not connected with the editorial staff of the paper...

Because this newspaper has political and economic convictions that require us to plead the cause of Wendell L. Willkie...

Sure! Criticize Your Editor We tell our caller that one thing wrong with the average American was that when he or she felt strongly about what some editor said...

That's the American way of carrying on a democracy, isn't it? That's where freedom of press and freedom of opinion have their origin...

So, folks, when you disagree with us, or when you want to register your thoughts upon matters vitally affecting your welfare in other realms...

College Students Are Religious This is interesting, confirming the opinion of those who have declined to accept the non-sensical charge made against youth by many so-called leaders...

Call to Arms By lot, will be beginning the process that will turn them from citizens into soldiers.

Wendell L. Willkie is certainly endeavoring to impress labor with the fact that he knows something about how to provide more employment for people in these united States...

Herbert Hoover's Mistakes (A Guest Editorial)

An inspired piece from one of the New Deal propagandists says that "Hoover was a complete failure." So he was. He failed in a lot of things.

He did not preach class hatred, nor try to pack the supreme court. He did not blow up every third row of cotton and he did not promise the American people one thing while doing the same momentary thing to accomplish the directly opposite result.

He did not ask congress to assess the taxpayers a billion dollars every time some one shot off a firecracker in Europe, and he did not go on fishing trips on government warships, accompanied by a fleet of destroyers.

Mrs. Corson Defends Record of Roosevelt

Editor, The Eccentric: I am for Roosevelt because I know that by far the vast majority of our fellow citizens are better off today and better secured in their well-being than they were seven years ago.

Protection In Assault Many of us would not like being criticized by Mr. Roosevelt if he had retired on retirement instead of offering to continue as President...

Knocking on Wood!

EVENTS of the past few days lead one to wonder if General Johnson is not right about this "crisis" between the United States and Japan, 5,000 miles across the Pacific.

General Johnson avers that the crisis is one of those things prompted by President Roosevelt, which his hands are, in the most astute, astute, able and clever hand at politics...

Now for "Old Iron Pants" Johnson to advance such a charge is not a nice thing perhaps. However, facts are facts, and the record shows that Mr. Roosevelt...
