Ward-Denker

The marriage of Ruth W. Denker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Denker, of California, to Edmund J. Ward, son of Mrs. Marie Ward, of Detroit, was solemnized last Saturday evening in Redford Avenue Presbyterian Church at 8:30 o'clock.

Henry C. Denker, father of the bride, preceded his daughter to the sanctuary which was banked with chrysanthemums and large palms. Nancy Ann Denker, seven years old, dressed in a long blue tulle gown, scattered rose petals in the path of the bride, and little Edward Denker, dressed in white satin and carrying the wedding ring on a small satin pillow, accompanied her down the aisle.

The bride was lovely in her robe of white bridal satin fashioned Princess style. It had a sweeping square-cut train. The neckline and long pointed sleeves were trimmed with Chantilly lace medals. She wore a crown of white and long pointed veils, and a tiara of orange blossoms. The bride's bouquet was of white roses and white chrysanthemums. Elsie Turner was maid of honor and her gown was of white and yellow, trimmed in doulon velvet. She carried pink chrysanthemums and eight roses. Her bridesmaids were Viola Denker, Dorothy Denker and Virginia Gault. Their gowns were of white and yellow. Donald Diederich, of Saratoga boulevard, by her sorority sisters, led Friday evening in Detroit made her the happy recipient of some beautiful gifts. Sixteen guests attended.

Oct. 15, 1915, Little Charlie Shain, an irrepressible youth, fell last Saturday while playing near the M. E. Church and splintered the bone in his left arm.

The secretary of the Village Improvement society recently received a letter from Mr. Hull, of Albion, asking for the rules of the association with a view forming one thing there. Verily there are some things worthy to be copied even from Birmingham.

Dr. L. F. Baldeck, our successful veterinary surgeon, has been called away to Toronto, Ont., by the severe illness of his brother. He will return just as soon as possible and will give notice to the public of his arrival.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

A score of cities and towns in Michigan will be represented in the Ford Michigan Championship automobile race to be held at the State Fair grounds at Detroit Saturday, Oct. 17. In addition to cash prizes and the cup one Detroit has authorized me to state that he will give a $100 Ford racing body to the winner of the race.

A death that has startled the entire community came suddenly to Mr. Henry Ackerman, of Pierce street.

Donald Plumsted and Edward Smith spent Sunday in Ann Arbor. Postmaster Mitchell visited Buffalo and Niagara Falls last Sunday and Monday and had the pleasure of being ordered to "move on" while crossing one of the lower railroad bridges. As the Canadian "swif boys" had a gun that looked 12 feet long with a butcher knife stuck on the end that measured three feet long, four inches wide and had an inch thick groove to a razor edge, it is needless to say he moved.

Pierre Van Paassen On Fisher Town Hall

Pierre Van Paassen, foreign correspondent and author of the best seller, "Days of our Years" will be the Detroit Town Hall speaker in the Fisher Theatre Next Wednesday, Oct. 23, at 11 a. m. His subject will be "The Cruise in Western Civilization."

What Van Paassen wrote about Hitler back in 1932, and what was then regarded as unimportant and "fantastic" sensationalism" has turned out to be more than true. He was one of the first foreign correspondents to interview Mussolini and Hitler and to see that there was an ominous threat to the future freedom and welfare of mankind.

dropped in and kept things going at a brisk pace.

On Mr. Ford's Head!

Always we have admired Alice Mason's taste in hats... but we do feel it our duty to protest to what we saw of Alice's new Fall hat, pictured by the Detroit News photographer the day following the opening World Series game. In the picture behind Edsel Ford in a box seat, sat Alice. Now Edsel held his hat upon his lap... but upon his head perched at a jaunty angle was Alice Mason's lid and it did not become his style of beauty. We would never have recognized Alice's hat, only of course there was her Bill and he was in animated conversation with Alice's suspended hat!

Sheehan Will Give His Views on Crisis

The dictator states of Europe look upon the United States as their eventual enemy, the only nation likely to offer a real obstacle to the spread of totalitarian ideology, according to Vincent Sheehan, author of "Personal History," and "Not Peace But a Sword" and noted foreign correspondent, who will be presented to the public by the Women's City Club at the Scottish Rite Cathedral, Masonic Temple, Oct. 18 at 8:30.

Sheehan spent the summer of 1939 in Mexico; 1938 and 1940 in Europe's danger spots, including Spain, Germany, Czechoslovakia and France. He did special correspondence for the New York Herald Tribune and collected material for a new book and magazine articles, "Not Peace But a Sword" relates his European experiences.

The dictator nations feel that they can handle everybody else but the United States. They have, he says, nothing but contempt for England and France.
