Lions-Bears Game Tickets Offered Next

With the Chicago Bears leading the western division, and the Detroit Lions again appearing to have something of a punch following that spirited victory over Green Bay last Sunday, the game between these two teams Nov. 10 ought to be a real battle. And that's why two reserved-seat tickets to this encounter have been offered in the fifth week of the Eccentric-Merchants football forecaster contest.

Interest continues to rise in the contest, and last week, the greatest number of ballots yet were returned in by football fans in Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, and even a few from Royal Oak, Highland Park and Detroit.

Ed Sarnowski Wins
As Page 1 has already informed readers, Edward Sarnowski, 19 years old, of 1344 Davis street, won last week's contest and for his efforts, gets two tickets to the Lions-Redskins game Sunday, plus $13 in merchandise prizes. Ed missed only three games, as did also three contestants, but as he was the earlier ballot to come in, he was adjudged the winner, in accordance with the rules of the contest. (Every ballot is numbered as soon as it reaches our office.)

Basketball Girls To Wear Pinafores
To distinguish between teams, the girls' intramural basketball team of Baldwin Junior High School are having red pinafores made by the sewing classes. One team will wear the pinafores over its suits while the other will wear the regular suits.

Arnold Studio Gets Senior Picture Job
Of five photographic establishments which bid, the Arnold Studio of Birmingham has been given the contract for this year's senior pictures.

The selection was made by a committee composed of three members from each senior home room. Advisers were W. S. Toothaker, Miss Nina Kotts, Miss Lucille Dewar, Miss Vida McGiffin and Miss Frances Loney.

They Picked Tie
There were several other clever people who picked the Harvard Army tie—they must have had a system. They are Charles L. Richards, Big Beaver road; S. W. Lamb, 1572 Humphrey; Warren W. Sticker, 424 Walleys drive; Grace A. Mory, 425 Pilgrim road and Kenneth M. Hunt, 339 Townsend street.

Picking the winners isn't so easy

Self-Imposed Rule Adopted By Band

To attain a greater efficiency, Baldwin High School band has drawn up a set of by-laws which was approved by Principal Ray H. Bechtold, Wednesday, Oct. 16.

By-laws, rules for conduct, penalties, awards, membership and practice at school and outside are laid down.

A. W. Berndt, director of the band, believes that this set of rules will do away with many disturbances, and more work will be accomplished.

Spanish Class Hears Talk About Mexico

Students of Spanish classes at Baldwin High School were excused second hour Monday to see colored motion pictures taken in Mexico by Horns Beyer.

Mr. Beyer, who is superintendent of schools in Highland Park, Michigan, studied at the University of Mexico. He gave a colorful talk on Mexico to accompany the motion pictures.

National Beauty Told At Barnum

The Musketiers, Barnum's 7-8 home room, sponsored an assembly last Tuesday which gave concrete evidence that America is truly a beautiful country.

Robert Hughes read the creed, the audience pledged its allegiance to the flag and sang patriotic songs.

Howard Sumera, of the faculty, recounted his trip through the East this past summer. To him, the most delightful spot was Cape Cod. He admired most the natural beauty of the country and the common understanding of the people.

Miss Foreman's trip was an air flight across the mountains and the prairies from Chicago to Sacramento. When flying over a country one gets a better conception of the unity and the breadth of the land, said Miss Foreman.

The Wichita Eagle tells about a Valley Falls man who was hit hard by the depression—he lost his job and went home to live, sent his children to the orphan's home, his wife to her mother, and shot the dog. But that isn't the half of it—things are still getting worse, and if something doesn't happen soon, he will have to give up his car.—Greenleaf, Kay, Sentinel.

Detroit Lions Meet The Redskins Next

At home and abroad on alternate Sundays, that's the Detroit Lions' schedule for the remainder of the 1940 season.

Next Sunday, Oct. 27, Detroit again returns to the University of Detroit Stadium to battle the Washington Redskins, currently leading the eastern division. The Redskins will bring to Detroit what has proved thus far to be the most potent and colorful scoring team in 1940 postgraduate football, featuring the sensational passing of Slingin' Sammy Baugh and Frank Filchock and the power-running of "Ambling Andy" Farkas, former University of Detroit star, recently returned to the Washington line-up.
