

We, the people, WANT WILLKIE

F. W. KNACK, FARMER: "What we need is horse sense. Unless men have work they can't buy what the farmers produce. Roosevelt and his 'brain-trust' are wreckers, not builders. That's why I like Willkie."

W. K. BRISTOL, FARMER: "I think we should get down to sound business methods. With Willkie we can do it. Taking money out of one pocket and putting it into another has gone far enough. Yes, I get paid for not raising crops, too."

CHARLES SCHOEFFLER, GAS STATION ATTENDANT: "Hundreds of my customers can't afford more than 2 or 3 gallons of gas a week. If that's Roosevelt's 'prosperity,' I'll vote for Willkie. We've already had 8 years of want in a land of plenty."

MRS. S. ETHEL STITT, GOLD STAR MOTHER: "I voted for Wilson to keep us out of war and I lost my son on foreign soil. I think Roosevelt is dragging us into another overseas struggle. Every mother should vote for Willkie."

MRS. GEORGE J. CARPENTER, HOUSEWIFE-MOTHER: "I don't think any man should be President three terms, no matter who he is. That's always been one of our good old American customs for the protection of Democracy."

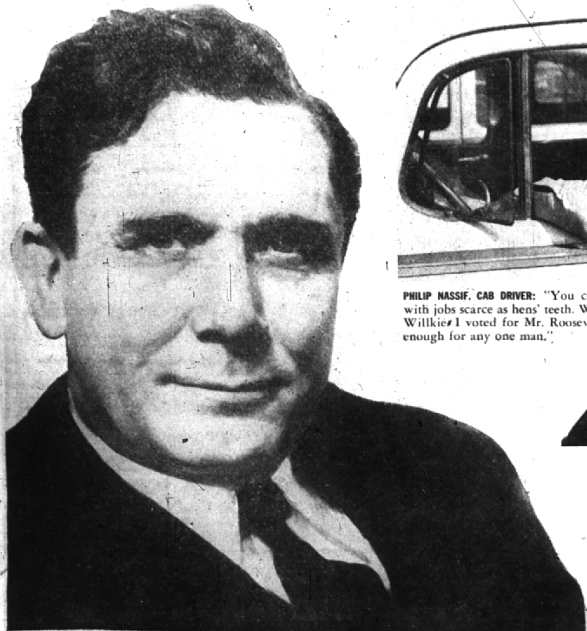

FRANK P. MCCLELLAN, COPPERSMITH: "Who is going to pay the national debt—who's going to make good the billions of dollars Roosevelt has wasted? You and I, and the rest of the wage earners. We can stop this waste with Willkie."

WM. A. DOROUCH, BARBER: "What we need is less class consciousness and more teamwork—industry, labor and leadership. Then, we'll have a real national defense program that'll bring prosperity and insure peace."

GEORGE DWORNICK, W.P.A. WORKER: "I was on W.P.A. and I know how it feels to be on relief. Now, I got a job, but thousands, like me, want a chance—not charity. They'll all get work with Willkie as President."

PHILIP NASSIF, CAB DRIVER: "You can't have real prosperity with jobs scarce as hens' teeth. We can't be worse off with Willkie I voted for Mr. Roosevelt in '32 and '36. That's enough for any one man."

A. B. DIEDRICH, PAINTER: "Congress means nothing when a Roosevelt rules the roost. That's not what I call Democracy! Why should we vote him a third term? Millions, like me, will vote for Willkie."

JACK STOKES, MECHANIC: "Don't sell America short—we, the people, can still run our own country. All we need is leadership—jobs—and everybody produce more, so we can all have more. That's what'll win for Willkie."

*Let's go to WORK with WILLKIE

We, the people, are all plain folks. Our pictures are genuine (and not paid for); our sentiments represent the thoughts of millions who want to eliminate waste in government. We want peace. We believe in a strong national defense. We are against a third term for any President. And we know that if you give jobs to all those who want jobs, you can raise relief rates to the needy and still reduce taxes.
