

City Girl Scouts, 200 Strong, to Rally Friday Around Crackling Bonfire

Indian Ritual Chosen For This Gala Occasion

Friday evening will see a crackling fire on the Hill School grounds, a bit of Indian tradition and a representation of some 200 Birmingham Girl Scouts who will gather for the first city-wide rally that the girls and their leaders have ever attempted here.

Sisters Wed in Double Rites

Mrs. Ronald Rose

Two sisters were married at a double ceremony in the First Baptist Church Friday evening with the Rev. J. O. Nelson officiating.

Several Guests Expect to Attend This First Meeting

Apparently this is birthday month. At least it is as far as many of the clubs are concerned. This week word comes of the 10th anniversary of the founding of the Birmingham branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden association.

Coming from out of town for this occasion will be many prominent in Michigan garden societies and also the national president of the association, Mrs. Murray Boccia of Kew-Forest, N. Y.

Nov. 23 set by Miss Baldwin for Wedding to Philip Carey

Just as we had thought the ranks of the brides-elect were nearly complete comes the exciting news of the approaching marriage of Ann Louise Baldwin, daughter of George E. Baldwin, of Lakeview avenue, and the late Mrs. Baldwin, to Philip John Carey, son of Dr. Bernard W. Carey, of Southfield avenue.

A mass at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, Nov. 23, at Holy Name Church will be solemnized by the Rev. Fr. Lawrence V. Hamel, assistant pastor of the church.

Mary Carey, sister of the bride-to-be, will be the maid of honor and the ranks of the bridesmaids include the names of Alice Botsford, Patricia Houff, Genevieve Gay and Margaret Carey, another sister.

John Scularo is to be Mr. Carey's best man and ushering the guests will be William Brouning, Frank McCarthy, Frank O'Donnell and George Baldwin, Ann Louise's brother.

Miss Botsford will start the pre-nuptial functions for Miss Baldwin with a shower Thursday.

Dance Attendance Is Set at 6,000 For the Summer

Reporting Thursday evening at a meeting of the Birmingham Parent-Teacher Council on the street dances which have been a project of this organization and the Recreation Commission, Mrs. J. Rowland Quinn estimated the season's attendance at 6,000.

This figure, Mrs. Quinn pointed out, is reckoned on the basis of 19 dances which included those sponsored by the Recreation Commission and those after Aug. 9, which were a part of the project of the P.-T. A. Council and were taken over after the Recreation Season closed.

An interesting sidelight on these dances is the number of hot dogs reported sold. The 2,400 winners would, one P.-T. A. member said, "nearly" stretch around the world if placed end to end.

Mrs. Quinn is chairman of the committee from the Council and had working with her Mrs. W. O. Jeffery, Jr., Mrs. A. W. Thorson, Mrs. William E. Essery, Donald K. Flanagan, Mrs. Joseph F. Janssen, Mrs. Andrew N. Watson and Mrs. Wilbur U. Johnston.

Mrs. Johnstone was general chairman of the dances at the Recreation Commission. She was chairman of the refreshment committee.

At this same Council meeting several important P.-T. A. dates were announced. On Friday the fall rally of division six is to be held at Cape. Next week from Oct. 6 to 13 is P.-T. A. week and on Oct. 17, the Michigan Education association is to meet in Detroit.

Oct. 30, 31 and Nov. 1 are the dates of the business meeting of the association a resolution was passed that the P.-T. A. would dedicate every effort to promote the furtherance of all activities which will make for a greater understanding between the home and the school thereby assisting in the preservation of this democracy and the enhancement of the American way of life.

Mrs. Joseph C. Beh Opens Home Oct. 9

La Belles BOOK STATIONERY GIFTS

NOW READY . . . AN ENLARGED SHOP

with a New Completeness

As we begin our fifteenth year in Birmingham it is with pleasure—and with gratitude to you—that we announce the readiness of our new adequate shop.

For some time we had been planning it; searching for new ways to make LaBelles more complete, more convenient! Enlarged departments provided the answer and now there is both completeness and convenience throughout—a "rounding out" of all departments; and of certain departments in which our former selections, due to restricted space, offered but a suggestion when compared with the new.

Gifts in leather, for example, may now be chosen from a large and well-arranged array of things, so fine as to literally warm the heart of folks who appreciate all the beauty and genuineness of fine leather. This division, quite naturally, is preponderantly stocked with gifts for men.

Books? More of them, many more—especially in the complete line of Juveniles now available; and there is a beautiful collection of books in fine bindings—exquisite hand-tooled leather bindings by famed English binders.

We have the complete line of Crane's and Eaton's stationeries—and will of course continue, in the stationery section, to provide gen-

Mosbys in Cincinnati Attending World Series

Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Mosby, of Westwood road, left Tuesday night for Cincinnati, to attend the World Series. They will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Judd N. Benson while there and they will occupy the box of Warren Giles, general manager of the Reds, at the games. Mrs. Mosby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wallace, of Winfield, Kans., will arrive here Friday for a 10-day visit, coming particularly to see the World Series games and to attend the University of Michigan-Michigan State football game in Ann Arbor, Saturday.

Opening Meeting Of Federation To Be on Friday

Friday, Oct. 4 marks the start of the 1940 season of the Oakland County Federation of Woman's Clubs. Under the leadership of Mrs. Warren C. Pratt, of the Birmingham Woman's club, representatives from 28 communities will convene at the Birmingham Community House for an all day session.

The meeting opens at 10 o'clock in the morning with the reports of the standing committees, followed by a business meeting. Mrs. J. M. Goeppfert, of Pontiac, social welfare chairman for the state federation, will give a special report on child welfare. During the noon recess luncheon will be served at the Community House.

At 1:30 the women will again gather to hear a program sponsored by the Ferndale Woman's club, Pleasant Ridge Woman's club, and the Hazel Park Round Table club. All local federated club women are welcome to attend.

"Yes," replied the prosaic friend, "that the continued marriage rate suggests that it is still the hope of the brave."

Sing, Brethren, Sing!

"The rapidly increasing divorce rate," remarked the wit, "indicates that America is indeed becoming the land of the free."

And so we invite you to our enlarged shop—a shop with new completeness; a shop which your constantly increasing patronage demanded and for that we are grateful. We sincerely hope that it has now been made more valuable and more convenient to you than ever; and we wish to assure you that there will be no deviation from our long-established way of doing business; which is, briefly, to Serve—and serve well!
