

Altar Society Tea Opens Club Season

Church Rectory Will Be Scene Of First Meeting

When the clubs begin to function again you can be sure that fall has finally arrived. Regardless of warm weather and sunny skies when the club women get back into the harness you know that fall is here.

Although the club season won't be going full tilt for a few weeks more at least, Holy Name Altar society comes out this week with plans for the first meeting of the coming season which is to be held Wednesday afternoon, when the Rev. Fr. David J. Duncan will be host at the rectory at a membership tea for the organization.

New members of the parish are invited to attend this affair when plans will be laid for the coming year. Mrs. J. W. DeBeaubien and Mrs. J. Rowland Quinn, retiring president and vice president respectively, will preside at the tea table which is to be covered with a lace cloth and centered with garden flowers. Baked by white tapers.

Members of the committee planning this tea are Mrs. J. R. Adams, Mrs. W. G. Anderson, Mrs. Donald G. Babbitt, Mrs. Joseph C. Bell, Mrs. O. O. Beck and Mrs. Carson Ringham.

Mrs. F. C. McCarthy will serve as president of the Altar society during the coming year. Other officers are: Mrs. Claude E. Mosher, vice president; Miss Edna Council, treasurer; Mrs. John E. H. Gunne, secretary; and Mrs. Carl W. Sundberg, corresponding secretary.

Young People's Society Potluck Supper Sunday

The Young People's society of Redeemer Lutheran Church will hold its monthly meeting Sunday evening at 8:00 at the home of Doris McKee, 2170 Beechwood drive. A potluck supper will be held preceding the business meeting.

Hubert Tino and Tom Milderbrant are in charge of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nau, Jr., of Dorchester road, and their family spent the week end at Wasaga Beach at Georgian Bay.

MISERY! HAY FEVER SEASON'S HERE AGAIN

I'm blue, Marge... I hate to miss the dance Saturday night... but that darn hay fever!

You guess... go to the drug store right now and get Gafford's Filtaire. You'll be fine by Saturday.

Gafford's Filtaire fits into your nostrils and dissolves as you breathe... preventing pollen and dust particles from entering nasal passages. INVISIBLE when worn.
