

Betty J. Harrack To Repeat Vows Friday Evening

Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Church, the Rev. C. C. Becker will solemnize the marriage of Betty Jane Harrack and Dater Underwood, of Royal Oak. Following the wedding a reception will be held in the church parlor.

This week, preceding her wedding, Betty has been feted at many affairs. Monday evening Virginia Homer entertained with a personal shower at her home on Cedar drive. Thursday noon, girls from Betty's office in Pontiac, gave a luncheon and shower in her honor.

Wednesday night Mildred Johnson, who will be the maid of honor, gave the spinster dinner, entertaining girls who are in the bridal party. Following the dinner, which was held at her home on Southfield road, Betty and her guests to "Life With Father" at the Kats Theatre. Guests included Virginia Homer, Ruth Miller, Trudy Allen, and Roberta Underwood, of Royal Oak.

B'ham Golf Club To Celebrate Aug. 23 As President's Day

Saturday, August 23, has been dubbed President's Day at the Birmingham Golf Club, honoring the current club president, W. E. Hoody, who lives on Chertoff drive in Birmingham. Various types of events are scheduled to take throughout the whole day, which is listed as one of the biggest stag events of the year at the club.

There is to be golf all day with prizes for everyone—experts, have-beens, dubs, and friends of members. A luncheon and a really big banquet dinner are being devised for the pleasure of members and their guests.

MODERN EFFICIENCY

OUR CONCEPTION of efficiency changes with time. Ames used to win victories with horses and sables. Now they use tanks and machine guns.

People, once paid bills with cash. Now they use checks. So efficient and convenient are checks that some 90% of all commercial transactions involve their use.

You will find them invaluable to you personally as an aid to stepping up your efficiency.
