Many Small Parties Will Precede St. Hugo of the Hills Dinner Dance

Around 250 persons are expected to attend the St. Hugo of the Hills buffet dinner-dance being held Saturday, Aug. 23, at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club. Many small cocktail parties are being given in both Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills prior to the big affair.

The party is to be a very gala event with a variety of booths, chief among which will be the one where the new Chevrolet is being given away, and Ray C. Cunningham's establishment for silly old fashioned tin-type photography. It is also expected that the fortune cremer will be a popular one.

Further in the way of entertainment will be Don Delbridge's orchestra and the Floor Show from the Club Royale. Mrs. C. L. Winningham and W. O. Briggs, Jr., are co-chairman of the party.

Among the people whom the C. L. Winningham's have asked in for cocktails Saturday night are Mr. and Mrs. X. L. Kessler, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Coulson, the S. L. A. Marshalls, the Paul D. Hammetts, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCallister, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ray Scolaro, the C. C. Winninghams, the John F. Hollisters, Mr. and Mrs. Don Bisell and E. W. Williams. Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Briggs, Jr., are also planning a cocktail party for Saturday, as are the Frank Couzens.

A group of the Ray C. Cunningham's friends plan to go there for cocktails early in the evening. A few of the guests who will be at the John R. MacManus' are Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Hubbie, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stall, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore R. MacManus, Mrs. Alexander Tuluboff, Sara Walker, Dr. J. B. Hasseberger, and John Foley. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Carey will entertain around 10 or 12 guests at their home on North Woodward avenue.

"Mind" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, Aug. 24th.
The Golden Text (1st Corinthians 3:21) is: "Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours; whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours; and ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's."
Among the Bible citations is this one (Psalms 17:15): "As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness."
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 471): "The Scriptures imply that God is All-in-all. From this it follows that nothing possesses reality nor existence except the divine Mind and His ideas."

TO GAIN the greatest enjoyment in the possession of photographic portraits of those you love—give thought to the framing. Let it be determined by the photograph itself—its size, character, subject—and further, by the room in which you wish to place it. Thus, your favored photographs will be not only appropriately but ideally framed!

The many frames awaiting your selection at LaBelles are far from ordinary, and in such an extensive range that "just the right frame" is assured. We would describe them for you here but, after all, correct frame selection is quite exacting—and is always most satisfactory when the photograph to be framed is brought to our shop, for then one may safely determine whether it should be glass, leather, silver or wood—quaint or modern—small or large—round or square—narrow or wide—in brief, ideally framed!
