Jane Underhill Names Date For Rites With W. E. Mosher

September 6 is the date set by Jane Underhill for her marriage to William Edwin Mosher, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mosher, of Bloomfield Hills. The ceremony will be performed in the Christ Chapel of the Trinity Church in Buffalo, and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Underhill, Jr., of Bloomfield Hills.

Committee members working arrangements for the show from the Garden Club are Mrs. Donald J. James, president of the club; Mrs. B. L. Bower, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Edith M. Forbes, in charge of exhibitions; and Mrs. Percy K. Loud, publicity chair. The Horticultural Society committee includes Harry Van Zelten, Birmingham; Walter Killing, Birmingham; Arthur Glaser, Bloomfield Hills; Simon Goldfarb, Belle Vernon; and Monty, the last three being from Cranbrook.

A few of the rules for the show are: all exhibits must be grown outdoors by the exhibitor, and should be named if possible.

No competitors shall receive more than one premium in any one class, and no exhibitor may have more than two exhibits shown, the first prize may be withheld.

All exhibits must be in conformity with the first rule of the show.

There are eleven general classes under which entries may be made. They are: Collections of dried flowers; dried fruit; dried materials and annuals; roses that are outdoor grown only; dahlias; gladioli; classes for artistic arrangement—only members are eligible in this class; fruits; and vegetables.

A class in artistic arrangements is open to members of both societies. This last includes table

McLeese Gardens Scene of Informal Nuptial Ceremony

The Hugh D. McLeese garden was the setting for a lovely wedding Saturday afternoon, when Miss Dorothy May Guay Byers became the bride of Francis Ralph Khuen Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Arthur Barnhardt, Hollis Methodist Church, officiated before an improvised altar, which was flanked on either side by large bouquets of varicolored carnations, orange dianthus, pink astilbe, strewn from the steps up to the altar, outlined the aisle down which the bridal party walked.

Miss McLeese's gown was fashioned of white moire taffeta and marquise lace. The bodice had a deep V neck, and short straight sleeves, and her very full skirt was marquise lace. She wore a wide sash and carried a bouquet of bride's roses, daisies, and baby blues.

Miss Finlayson, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. John Renfrew, of pink roses and larkspur formed her headdress, and the same flowers were used for her bouquet.

Arthur McLeese, his bridegroom, wore a pale yellow organdy dress and carried the traditional basket of rose petals.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. Guests were served at small tables set out on the lawn. After the reception the young couple left for a Northern trip on their honeymoon.

Jack Finlayson was his brother's best man. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Finlayson of Saul Stearns, Mich. The bride is the daughter of Robert McLeese, of Freeland,

Byers-Khuen Rites Read at Charming Home Ceremony

At an informal ceremony held on Hensley drive, Mrs. Dorothy May Guay Byers became the bride of Francis Ralph Khuen Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Arthur Barnhardt, Hollis Methodist Church, officiated before an improvised altar, which was flanked on either side by large bouquets of varicolored carnations, orange dianthus, pink astilbe, strewn from the steps up to the altar, outlined the aisle down which the bridal party walked.

Mrs. Khuen chose an afternoon gown of soft green crepe, fashioned with a full skirt and square shoulders. She carried a spray of sweetbriar roses and larkspur. Mrs. Renfrew, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a white dress and a wide sash and a white orchid shoulder corsage.

A reception was held for about 40 friends at the Hensley home after the wedding ceremony. The white bridesmaids surrounded by pink carnations and larkspur, and the maid of honor, wearing a pale yellow organdy dress and carried the traditional basket of rose petals.

Mrs. and Mrs. Khuen left Saturday evening for a Northern trip. They will be at home to their friends on Labor Day. Now, in their new home at Villa Vista.

The bride is the daughter of George McGuire, of Birmingham, L. I., and Mr. Khuen is the son of Mr. James Charles A. Khuen of Saginaw.

Jack Finlayson was his brother's best man. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Finlayson of Saul Stearns, Mich. The bride is the daughter of Robert McLeese, of Freeland,
