Reporter Visits The Club House Mentioned in 'Bits'

By KATHRYN UMPHREY

In Birmingham we have a Rinkink Club that isn't a Rinkink Club—in fact it's not even a club, just a clubhouse and a very strong ally. Much scurrying around was done in order to get the proud father into proper clothes so that he could walk down the aisle with his daughter not an hour later.

Bob Hall, of 16 Valley Row, Bloomfield Hills, made a handsome suit which he took to the Rinkink Club at Springdale golf course while playing with Edgar Cabell and son, Peter, of Detroit. He used a spook. His score for the nine holes was 36, two over par.

Bits of Birmingham

Talk about the blushing brides—consists of the bride's father at a recent Birmingham wedding. When he got dressed just before the wedding he discovered that the tailor had pulled the old trick of altering one side of a suit and the other not at all. Much scurrying around was done in order to get the proud father into proper clothes so that he could walk down the aisle with his daughter not an hour later.

Mr. Thelma V. Sleighter, of Birmingham, has filed suit against Albert Sleighter, being a divorcee.

A hearing was held in Circuit Court last Thursday on request of Ruth Kemp, 1624 N. Woodlawn, who sought permanent custody of her 14-year-old son, Fred, who she had placed in the hands of Frank H. Kemp, Detroit business man, who objected to her taking him back to Birmingham. The court sustained his objection, declaring that world conditions are too unstable for the boy to be returned July 17, 1940.

Reports from Camp Tell of Big Times Enjoyed by Boys

Camp Birmingham, the Oakland County YM-CAY camp at Hale, Mich., is just completing four weeks of activity, the half-way mark of what promises to be a most successful season. Both boys and parents have been very enthusiastic about the camp program.

The first horse show, arranged by O. S. Kenmore, of the Riding Master, took place recently. Among the Birmingham boys taking part were Jim Egan, Charles Thomas, Robert Heister, David Sewall, Bill Smith and Tom Seabald. The riding master gave some exhibition jumping. The whole camp was very interested in the show.

Miss Robinson, the water front director, reports that the boys' team for swimming is 307 have passed their beginner's test, 72 the intermediate, 63 swimmers, 19 junior lifesavers, 8 advanced swimmers, and 2 senior lifesavers. About 80 boys have completed their canoe tests. The sailing tests include 20 boys in crew work, 15 passed their first test, 10 the second, 10 the third.

Unless this Wanderer's eyes deceive him, he believes the lightning rod which strikes up Electric charges, and leading to the ground is a copper wire. One section of the circuit, it is alleged, is a wooden pipe, and is broken by lightning. (A lightning lead is seldom struck; but it carries power and is a danger to the current to run into the ground, causing no damage.)

The Dog Is There

Sire enough, Tuesday morning one of the members called and asked us over for a visit. Roger Williams was the name of the dog whom I talked, and when I arrived at the clubhouse he had another name, Tony Baldwin, and the dog mentioned, Rocky, with him.

Tony and Rocky explained to me that they were the owners having built the clubhouse last summer, but that they let other boys from the neighborhood play in Rocky's yard, and that they informed the Editor, and they went on to look at this famous house, where we were joined by four or five more of the neighborhood crowd.

ESTATE FARM IN THE HILLS

Ideally suited for the horseman or gentleman farmer is this completely modernized estate farm in the "horse country," 100 fertile, rolling acres, suitable for cattle, sheep or horses, and views of wooded hills and distant valleys for the serious-minded city dweller.

The main residence is an attractive remodeled burning farmhouse with automatic heat, bathroom, huge log burning fireplace and the charm of country life at its best. The dairy barn has plenty of room for orders or milkers and lots of mow space. A tenant house is quite removed from the main residence for privacy, and other buildings include poultry and sheep barns, farm office and tool storage.

One and a half miles from the Kennels, it is ideally located for Hunt activities and the country homes of many of your friends are nearby. The owner is leaving town and has priced it to sell at a figure far below its worth.

It looks as though Oakland County is to get a new State Police office in a good idea. At the present time the State Police office is located in the old West Maple building, which is a very old building and is in need of repair.
