

Camp Sherwood Open for Adults August 19 to 24

Wearing a bridal gown of white satin and a long veil which was formerly worn by her mother, Marjorie Strong became the bride of Lieut. George H. Russel, II, at 4 p.m. yesterday afternoon in Christ Church Grandview, The Ranch.

Theo Club Members Fete Mothers at Tea

Members of the Theo Club gave a tea in honor of their mothers at their clubhouse on Friday afternoon, Aug. 21, from 3 till 5 o'clock. Miss Strong was general chairman of the affair.

Among those present were Mrs. Mary S. Smith and Mr. Strong, who were married shortly to Atlanta, Ga., Mr. Russel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip S. Russel of Dearborn. The bride's parents, Col. and Mrs. Smith, are deceased.

Tuesday evening, the bride's parents had a rehearsal dinner at Orchard Lake to a few friends for a wedding reception.

Lieut. and Mrs. George H. Russel II, left after the reception for Fort Riley, Kansas, where Lieut. Russel is stationed.

Camera Corner

(Continued from Editorial Page)

visit to Detroit of Asael Adams, Instructor of Photography at the Art Center School of Los Angeles; Asael Adams will arrive in Detroit on Aug. 24 and stay until Labor Day.

"During his stay he will instruct a limited group in the fundamentals of photography. His lectures will consist of five evening lectures together with week-end outings where professional models will be used in demonstrating Adams' technique.

"On Sunday, Aug. 24th, at 2:30 p.m. Asael Adams will lecture in the auditorium of the Detroit Art Institute on the art of portraiture. Admission 50 cents.

Completes Training Course
SUE WILLIAMS completed her training course at Hilldale Camp last Wednesday evening, Aug. 20. Sue Williams, presented with her diploma at special program on Thursday evening.

Marjorie Strong Repeats Vows with Lieut. G. Russel

Ruth H. Anderson Engaged to Marry Weldon W. Price

Last evening was a big day for Ruth Helen Anderson, for not only did she celebrate her birthday, but also it was the occasion for an engagement to Weldon W. Price, 21, of Westland, Mich. The bride, Marjorie Strong, bridesmaid and sister of the bride, was dressed in blue organza dress made similarly to the bride's gown. The bride, however, wore a long dress of pink organdy.

Hartie Russel was best man for both bride and the brothers were Charles Pointe and Jack Strong, brother of the bride.

Miss Strong is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip S. Russel of Dearborn. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. Weldon received his degree from the University of Ill., where he was a Sigma

The news was made known by means of the place cards which were pinned to the tables with a satin ribbon. When opened the reveals revealed news of the engagement.

The Tri-Delt and Sigma Deltas had their own tables respectively, were used both for the center piece and minstrel daisies which were presented.

Guests for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wolfe, of Highland Park; Jean Anderson, Faye Anderson, Jeanne, Mrs. Kelly, George German and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Price.

Guest plans have it that Ruth and Weldon will be married during the Christmas holidays.

Rev. Charles C. Beckers Attends Dinner in Saginaw

The Rev. and Mrs. Charles C. Becker will be guests at a dinner party Friday evening at the Bradford Hotel in Saginaw, with Dr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Hartly.

Dr. Fischer is pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Saginaw.

Mr. Hartly was pastor of the Michigan Avenue Baptist Church when Mr. Becker was at the First Methodist Church there.

His children are to be Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Case, of Saginaw.

Hilldale Camp Has Water Carnival and Banquet

On the seventh annual Roman Banquet was held last night at Hilldale Camp on Wednesday evening.

The entire camp appeared for dinner in costumes of goddesses, gods and mythic characters, while staff and guests dressed as slaves, served the banquet.

On Thursday evening, Edward Bryan Sr., attorney, gave a talk on "The Wild Sierras."

Exhibition divers and swimmers at a water carnival held on Sunday included Mrs. Esther Sanders, and Barbara Pax, both of Birmingham.

Guests for the evening included

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wolfe,

of Highland Park; Jean Anderson,

Faye Anderson, Jeanne,

Mrs. Kelly, George German and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Price.

Guest plans have it that Ruth and Weldon will be married during the Christmas holidays.

Rev. Charles C. Beckers Attends Dinner in Saginaw

The Rev. and Mrs. Charles C. Becker will be guests at a dinner party Friday evening at the Bradford Hotel in Saginaw, with Dr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Hartly.

Dr. Fischer is pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Saginaw.

Mr. Hartly was pastor of the

Michigan Avenue Baptist Church

when Mr. Becker was at the First Methodist Church there.

His children are to be Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Case, of Saginaw.

A Sweetheart Dance is being planned by DeMolay chapters of districts for Friday September 12, at the Birmingham Civic Auditorium.

By that time the Royal Oak, Pontiac, Mt. Clemens and Birmingham clubs will have each selected a girl for the competition, and four young ladies will be guests of honor during the event.

Once the forward is selected,

she will attend the State Sweetheart

and State Sweetheart will be chosen from among the district representatives at the competition.

Bills for the entertainment of Detroit's girls already begin.

Kaufmann's orchestra will furnish the music for the evening, and the band will be on hand to work

Switzerland for the Birmingham or Hartberger Chapter has not been advised as yet.

In hour of MRS. H. G. CRISWELL, who is spending some time with her son-in-law and daughter, the FRANK TYSONS, MRS. J. DAUTER TYSON, gave a small party at her home yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Criswell returned to New York City last week after a short visit here.

BETTY HOUSEWORTH, a student nurse at Bronson Hospital in Kalamazoo, is spending her three-week vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Houseworth.

MARY GRACE OGDEN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Ruffin Street and Mrs. Ruffin Street, is attending summer school at Michigan State College and will be at home until school resumes in the fall.

Miss Alstrom chose Linda Lee, a girl from the fourth grade, as her escort for the Western trip.

MARY CURTIS, 18, arrived

from Bronxville, N. Y., at the end of this week to be the guest of

Jeanne Shuell. Mary and their parents are classmates at Elsie Manor School.

THE FREDERICK T. CLIFFORD, Mrs. MARY CURTIS, Mr. and

Mrs. Edgar Baum, of Indianapolis, Ind., spent the weekend at Higgins Lake.

The middle of August will see

MRS. CORNELIUS M. HARPER

leaving for Cape Cod. Her son,

John, will remain in New England

with him, but John will be right with mark is suffering

with a case of the mumps.

MRS. RAYMOND P. RAYNOR

will be present for the wedding

Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. Lauren L. Robinson, and Col. and Mrs. Vinton Birch.

Marriage Licenses

ARE BEING ISSUED

AT THE CHURCH OF CHRIST

AT 10 AM ON SATURDAY

AT