Troop 6 under the able leadership of Mrs. Dudley Simons started plans for a Christmas Party. During the regular meeting, Monday, an impromptu meeting of Patrol leaders was called during which, the party was discussed.

Dorothy Adams, Margaret Dudley and Catherine Sirois have transferred from Troop 6 to a night troop. Patricia Underhill, has been selected to succeed Dorothy Adams' place. Mary Betts, Virginia Carter, and Betty Fitch are new members of the troop. Margaret Kuhr is in charge of plans for a Christmas Party.

Troop 9 began a new arts and crafts project at its regular meeting this week. The Girls are making Christmas cards using their own original designs. Also important news of the week is the great good fortune in having a new and additional leader. Miss Mary Catherine Ellsworth, Pontiac, who is especially skilled and talented in Arts and Crafts and who has had many years of experience in Scouting.

Troop 10 worked out a pantomime on their attendance badge. They are now taking pictures for their Photography Badge. Celeste Grubs is a new member.

The Council has its regular meeting at the Scout Room in the Community House. Two new Council members were there, Mrs. V. LaPrade, and Mrs. R. D. Webb. Mrs. LaPrade is the leaders representative on the Council. She reported on long term plan, for the leaders association starting with a gay Christmas party where there will also be an exhibit of dolls made by Scouts.
