Air Raid Drill Held at School

What is believed to be the first air raid drill ever held in Birmingham was conducted Monday afternoon at Bartram School. At the signal, the students marched to the lower corners of the courtyard of the school, lining up in five abreast, with the teachers acting as wardens. This drill meets the requirements as it has lavatories, drinking facilities and two exits. The children were cautioned to remain as quiet as possible to prevent panic among the younger ones. Defense Bond Sales Jump As War Starts

Can't Get Enough Securities to Fill The Demand Here... Sale of U. S. defense bonds has jumped so markedly since the money's entry in the war that the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago cannot supply enough of the paper, it was announced yesterday by Charles E. James, president of the Birmingham National Bank, national defense expenditures. "We estimate that since the bonds went on sale Birmingham people have bought $381,000 worth," he said. "I think sales here are in the neighborhood of $10,000,000."

New Bus Route To Toledo Planned

new bus service which will connect Birmingham with Toledo via Detroit through Detroit, is likely, it appeared last night following a hearing on which City Board members agreed to petition to inaugurate this service. It is proposed to run the line from Detroit to Toledo by way of Toledo and U. S. 24, connections from Birmingham by means of a bus which will travel east and west on West Main. Travelers for the east and west probably find this new line quicker than the Detroit connection.
