

Betrothal of Shirley Busby and Herbert Poppleton Revealed at Open House

Match Folders Tell News at Big Party Saturday Evening

Big event of Saturday night was the open-house given by Mr. and Mrs. John H. Busby, of Lake, to announce the betrothal of their daughter, Shirley, to Herbert Poppleton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William K. Poppleton, of East Maple avenue.

Greeting guests at the door were young Joanne Adams and Charlotte Gregory, who were all dressed up in their red and white, dotted Swiss dresses and were passing out red and white match folders inscribed with "The match," followed by the engaged couple's names. Little Joanne is from Chicago and is Shirley's niece, while Charlotte, 10, is a young niece, both from Saginaw. A red and white color line was carried out in the Christmas decorations throughout the house.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. George G. Hurrell, and their 14 year-old daughter, Jane, who is a sophomore at E. W. High School, Mr. Hurrell is doing an Economic Survey of Land Use for the Extension Service at Michigan State College in Oakland County. The Hurrells spent the past two years in Upper Peninsula, and think they are going to miss the winter sports that go along with all the ice and snow up there, but will find Birmingham a very nice place to make a home.

Barbara B. Sears Plights Her Troth To I. T. Billheimer

Conversation piece of the week-end among Birmingham's younger crowd was caused by the announcement made by Mr. and Mrs. Clinton B. Sears, of the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Baldwin Sears, to Irving Toney Billheimer, son of Mrs. Irving Kendall Billheimer, of Floral Gardens, Fla. The wedding will take place in early spring, although no date has been set as yet.

Both Barbara and Toney are with the American Airlines, Inc., at Lunken Airport in Cincinnati, Ohio, and will make their home there after their marriage. Barbara and her fiancé spent last Tuesday with Barbara's parents in Birmingham.

Reporter Notes Colorful Gowns at Winter Club Party

Colorful formal gowns, forming a rainbow against the somber black and white uniform worn by the men, made the Christmas Winter Club Dance, one of the most festive parties of the season, a most attractive spectacle last Saturday night. As usual the dance was held out at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club following a whole array of small dinner parties.

To get down to brass tacks, or perhaps we should say gold beads, here was the gown made of soft white crepe with a wide grille of gold heading done in a sunburst pattern worn by Mrs. A. G. Ripley, Jr. Mrs. L. C. Howe's blond beauty was set off by her charming feathery of turquoise blue crepe, while Mrs. Benjamin Brewster was most attractive in a metallic print of soft rose, orchid and gold.

Mrs. Harold Shepherd chose for the occasion a very stunning tunic gown made with wide bands of gold soutans bordering the bottom of the tunic and short sleeves. Petite Mrs. John L. McQuigg was gay in a red crepe short sleeved dress, trimmed with gold beads, while Mrs. E. H. Graf was lovely in a dress having a bodice of silver and a full blue net skirt.

Mrs. Robert Buick was charming in a white chalk crepe gown, with which she wore a wide grille, kid belt. A stately, long sleeved dress of black crepe, made with a wide fluting of the same material around a deeply neckline, was worn by Mrs. H. G. Little.

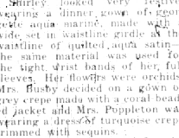

Topic for Christmas arrangement goes to Mrs. J. S. O'Garra, Jr., who had a corsage of mistletoe on the shoulder of her gown which was made with a full black net skirt and a white bodice, the latter being banded in seed pearls.

Mrs. Cassius L. Miller's arresting costume was of black net and tulle, with a white lace ruching edging the top of the bodice and forming the tiny shoulder straps. Nor should we overlook Mrs. Robert J. Mason's lovely tailored suit of red shirred jersey, with a gold thread running through the shirred material.

Mrs. J. Thomas Smith of Grosse Pointe was beautiful in a short sleeved gown of red crepe made with a V neck and a wide soft grille of the same material. Mrs. J. Donald McKay was her usual attractive self, wearing a chartreuse chiffon gown made with a full skirt and a fitted top, as was Mrs. S. M. Thompson who chose a gown of tulle plaid in rose, black and white.

Mrs. James C. Neal was most stunning, all done up in purple crepe, set off by a chartreuse orchid in her hair and chartreuse slippers. Mrs. Clarke F. Andrae's brunette beauty was set off by her gown of white crepe trimmed with iridescent sequins.
