Telephone Girls Have Yule Party

The Community House was the scene of the Bell Telephone girls' annual Christmas party last Thursday evening. Approximately 60 employees attended the party, at which Mrs. Margaret Kells was social chairman.

The evening started out on a particularly cozy note with the group singing America, after which Miss Laing Schroeder led the singing of Christmas Carols. For a very fair equivalent of two cents per minute, Bellmen Robert Patterson and Lola Schoal, he sang a duet, next Ethel Patterson and Mardell Zane put on a short skit. Another vocal duet was rendered by Dr. Mortensen and Betty Burch. Jane Hyer gave a Christmas Reading, Elizabeth Jackson a pantomine solo and Betty Pearson an accordion solo. After the party Santa Claus appeared to this tribute a great many gifts, and a Christmas lunch was served. For their annual charity project, the group decided to make a cash donation to the Red Cross this year.

St. Dunstan's Guild Has Novel Party

St. Dunstan's Guild members celebrated Christmas last Saturday evening at their annual Yuletide party. The evening began at 5:30 o'clock out at Christ Church Cranbrook where the group met for a half hour of Christmas Carols. Organ accompanist for the group was Mrs. Bunker Hill.

After caroling, the party went on to the Cranbrook Pavilion on Lone Pine road where they were met by Santa Claus, Judge Harry D. Hoey, who distributed "long poems attached to small gifts." Entertainment that followed included keno game with defense bonds for prizes, and both square and round dancing, music being furnished by Carl Wonnberger at the piano.

Mrs. J. Robert Swanson was in charge of decorations for the party and helping here were Mrs. Bruce N. Coulter, Walter Bromley, and H. V. Davis. Taking charge of refreshments were Pat Eden, and Mrs. Coulter, assisted by Mrs. Henry Whiting and Mrs. Harry D. Hoey. Mortimer Neff was in charge of entertainment.

Hills League Plans Gala Dinner-Dance For Friday Night

Members of the Summer Twilight League out in Bloomfield Hills are staging a get-together on Friday night, Dec. 27, at the Bostford Tavern for a dinner-dance. The dancing is to consist mostly of old-time numbers—old-fashioned waltzes, polkas and the like.

This League, you know, is made up of guys and gals from the Hills who get together every Wednesday night during the summer months to play softball. Since so many members are home from College right now, the girls decided it would be a good idea to have a party.

A few of those in on the arranging part were Dorothy Prussing, Judy Murray, Shirley Craig, Kitty and Harriett Williams, Estelle and Jane Macauley, Mrs. Richard Wallace, Helen Tippett, Conco John, Katherine Evans, Jean Day, Barbara Higbie, Pat and Cynthia Pierce, Jean Kirk, Barbara Booth, Mrs. Lyman Craig, Jr., and Mary Jean Tyson.

CHARLES BUELL, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Buell, is having a supper party on Friday, the day after Christmas, for 12 of his friends in honor of his 5th birthday.

Among those entertaining holiday guests are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bartholomew, who expect guests, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hall, Monroe, of Flint, Mich., and Mrs. and Mrs. Glen Rhodes, of Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Scott will be hosts to Mathew Scott, of Imlay City, Mich. Dr. and Mrs. Frederick will be hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Tukey, of White Plains, N. Y. The Tukeys are Mrs. Frederick's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl D. Loomis plan on spending Christmas with Mrs. Oliver, who is stationed at Fort Field, Belleville, Ill.

Friends in Need

Fifty dimes from Mr. F. M. Bell, who reluctantly gave the dimes. It seems the Detroit Times has established through Red Cross, a number of welcoming posts at various railroad stations and bus terminals, whose duties are to help soldiers enroute and give each one a box of home made candies, cigarettes and matches. Yesterday a soldier stood at the terminal two hours waiting for buddies who were to join the balance of the group at the post. Well, they failed to arrive and he did not have his motor time enough after waiting so long to make his destination. So the welcoming committee of South Tre noticed the Times before you could say Jack Robinson he was on his way with a large box of goodies, his fare, best wishes of Mrs. Campbell, and other Red Cross volunteers.

THE RALPH L. CORYELLS will spend Christmas day at a family reunion out in Lathrup Townside at the home of Mrs. Coryell's mother-in-law and sister, MR. AND MRS. HENRY McCLEAN.
